"'Temptation Christ' Ary Scheffer" by thegetty/ CC0 1.0

Whenever I'm on the verge of hopelessness and doubting, just the existence of these Demonic Dark Demons and their kingdom, kindles again my belief in an infinite God characterized by an infinite light!"

If there's a great darkness there should be a great light !

Have you ever noticed something weird with your gut, how about supernatural creatures whose purposes are unclear or you are not quiet sure of? These are life defining creatures and yet it seems like no one is concerned about them, why is the internet quiet about all this, here we discuss about these creatures and their kingdom.

When you see a person you might try to understand them from what they are saying,from their bodily movements, how they sound, their facial expressions, their head shake signals, from everything you see on the outward, or from everything going on in the inward part of them, or from how you feel about them.

Now Imagine the person you're seeing and understanding, as a person, whose facial gestures are being puppeted, whose head shakes are being puppeted, whose voicing how he sounds is being puppeted, whose emotion is being puppeted, whose mind is being puppeted, whose ways of seeing others is being puppeted, whose body is being puppeted, who is literally being puppeted 97 – 98%, someone that has only about 2–3% control over himself. Would you understand him or the puppeteer.

That's what we are, that's the human condition.

Now studying the puppeteer you find out that what's puppeting him is not some puppeteer, but an entity who can contemplate and understand the 8d world, but also who's very vile, loathsome, and almost other worldly beast like. Who is steering him to evil places, and dark avenues.

That's the human condition!

It's as if people don't know about these things or are blind to them when I ask them about this stuff.

This is my diary. It was meant to keep track of where I was with God and in this kingdom. I started recording my experiences being in Christ, trying to understand this kingdom-like rule of the 'supernaturals.' Things started to push me back to my faith when I began to see what is in me and what this world really is—the creature within. It even revealed things to me, communicating through emotions. What was revealed was a monster; it was a monster this whole time, disturbing my mental peace and everything about me.

Flyers? Archons? Demons? Faustian? Demonic monsters?

Is there someone supernatural in my body/gut? What is wrong with my gut? Why is my gut growling? Is my gut trying to communicate to me something? Is there someone supernatural in my world? Am I in an unseen realm, among the seen?

💢 Sorry for my broken English, I hope you will understand it. 💢

🚨 Please pledge that you will read at least half of this diary, if not the whole thing. Have you read one of those books, it's like that. I am asking this out of love; it is not for my own sake, as I know you will benefit from it. Please! 🚨

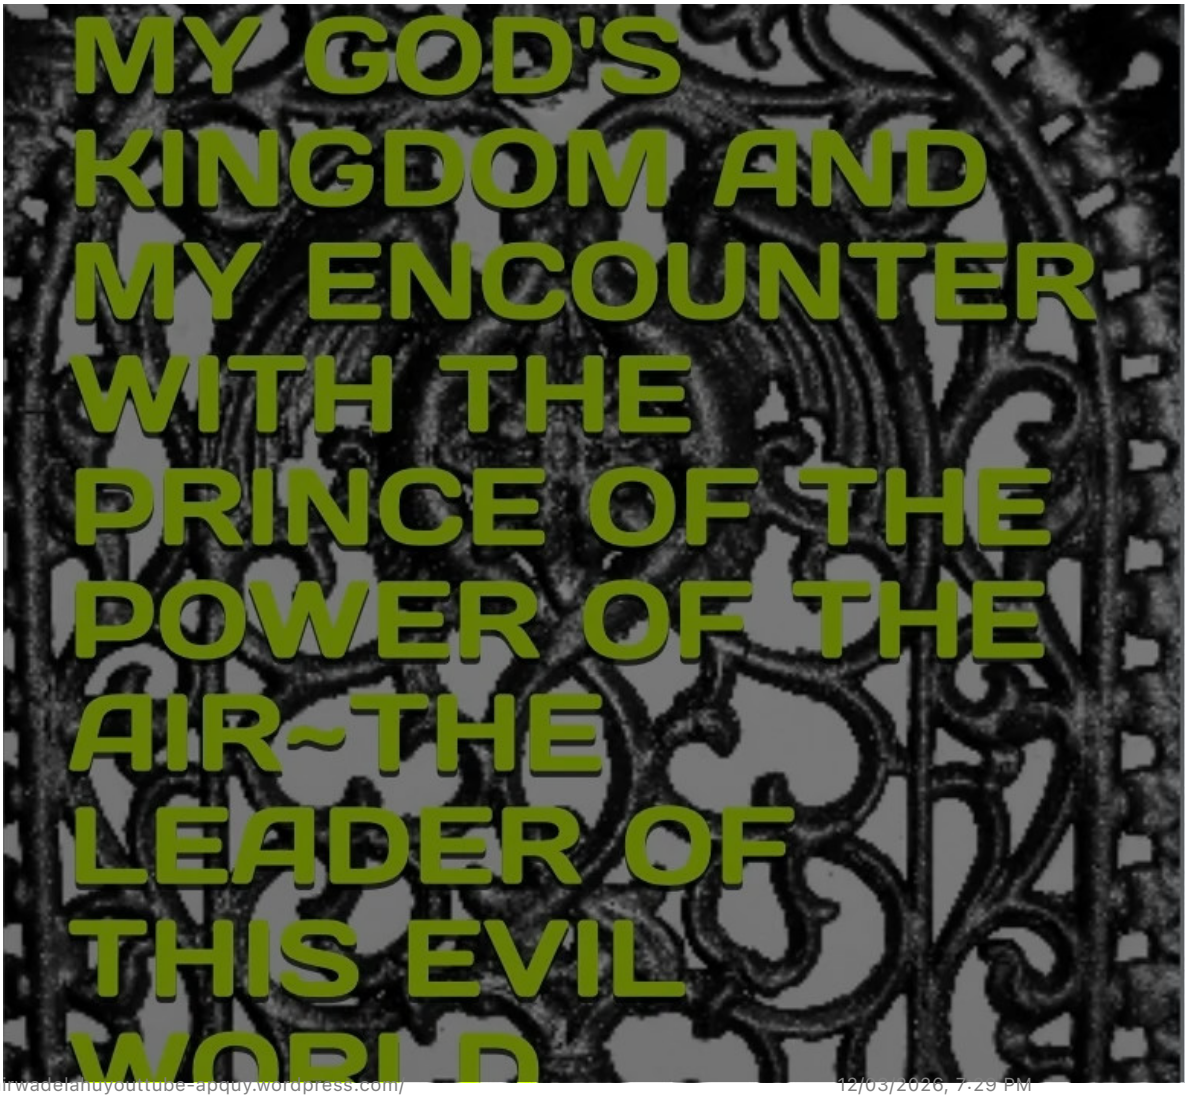
I PRAY LORD YOU'D SAVE EVERYONE FROM THE DEVIL THAT'S TRYING TO HOLD THEM BACK FROM YOU. I PRAY LORD, I PRAY, AMEN 🙏🏻

PLEASE GUYS REREAD IF INCASE YOU MISSED SOMETHING THIS IS SOMETHING VERY IMPORTANT, I KNOW LIVES MIGHT DEPEND UPON IT.



A charming stooge for Der Führer is this blonde lass who poses in the three pictures above. Having found a good camera companion for Hitler, Official-Photographer Hoffmann used her in a number of shots which are sold as postcards.

With young
Fräulein Goebbels—
a day of rest

Right:
'Hitler's Sweetheart'— it delighted him to see her at the Berghof until some busybody found she was not of pure Aryan descent.

WHY HITLER
HATED JEWS?

“THEY DON’T WANT US TO BE BROTHERS AND SISTERS LIKE CHRIST BUT HITLERS AND JEWS, THIS IS OBVIOUSLY A KINGDOM OF ENEMTY AND EVIL. THIS ENEMTY IS THEIR ONLY GOAL AND PURPOSE IN LIFE THAT’S WHY THEY BUILT IT AND ARE ORCHESTRATING IT 24/7 WITHOUT REST. THERE’S GOD’S KINGDOM SO GREAT AND BRIGHTER THAN THIS DARK WORLD SYSTEM, WHERE WE ARE IN HIS EYES CHILDREN OF THE MOST HIGH,NOT SOME MEAT AND BONE THAT COLLIDES AND FIGHTS.”

Check your emotions when you read this book; they’re instruments of a monster. Don’t let them interfere while you read; please check yourself like you’d check a thermometer.

Don’t go looking outward for a villain, look inward, there’s a lot to contain!

Attributes of the prince of the power of the air:

•They have so much power, but they’re not God, they’re created beings, there was someone living before them that caused them

•They’re are false preachers, they’re deceivers

•They’re evil beings, it’s opposite to there nature to do good like white is the opposite to black

•They’re Hope stealers

•They will torture you

•They will make you a lover of evil

They will make you feel and think abominable things and accuse you for it, that's not a moral agent or anything or a truth teller or some kind of a system creator but a demon whose only job is to lie, to poison your mind, and kill. They will gaslight you and all, they are deadly liars, don't fall for their manipulations and lies. EVERYTHING IN YOU IS CRUELTY EMOTION, NOTICE THIS. That's not even an unjust judge, it's darker than that,..that's a demon this is why it does what it is doing, 'to make us kill each other', it might not look like it but that's not your oppressor or anything that's the one who orchestrates zombiesm and so is the click you might think is a 'lady'. Have them as enemies for the right reason, they are your enemies because without shame they will encourage and show you why you should hate and kill your own mother. Be like Christ who loves you your mother or whoever is around you. You can't be like Christ no one can but try your best that the Demon in you is not using you, if you're not careful he will use you for many enemty purposes. And know this there's no device or this or that in you but a literal monster, it probably has lied to you and poisoned you with many despicable things, you'll be fine, find out for yourself in light of Christ noticing and recognizing who that's what kind mental fortitude it has. And then start to learn to be more careful about yourself and about these vomitous creatures.

Start from here everything around you: this world is filled with the dark kingdom of demons that want nothing but the evil and defilement of this world, 'God's creation', they want to darken us into all sorts of debasement. Forget about everything see the beast in you and everyone and know that this is an apocalyptical world, a world where man kind is under the rule of monstrous Demons. Does anyone deserve a head dip?.In light of Christ, no. .When Christ speaks, there is peace, there is love, there is respect, there is unity.
give up on you and let Christ take over you from head to toe, inside and Out . Do The same thing with head dips and head raise or right leg feet, or gut doors opening, let your answer come from Christ. No no one deserves anything sadistic and evil, he told us to love our neighbor,... he told us that the greatest commandment is to Love your neighbor as your self, don't listen to the creature who thinks it's okay to rape your own mother or father. Please start to see it as a monster and start to hate it, be repulsed by it's nature just the way Christ hates him.

Btw know that head dips, the head raise every system they try to implement is a demonic and monstrous system. People don't do these things for a reason but because the monster in them did it. Can you beat your heart willingly no, it's the same thing the head raises or dips or bending or emotions aren't being done by people, is a heart beating because of what you think no, try to stop it then. I'll applause you if you have control over these things, I'll applaud you if you have control over what they control. Head raise makes you feel inferior and raises your head, head dip makes you maybe feel superior and dips your head, but you know what, head dip might make you 'feel' inferior or head raise might make you 'feel' superior (though there's nothing superior about it only evil is what it is). It's mechanistic these things, it's is like a coloring book to them you can color it however you want there's no system about it it's simplistic and it's just coloring, this whole system thing doesn't matter to them when it looks like it's a big deal, I mean some think they're literally being hurt in some psychological way by these mechanistic orchestrations. No it's like they are painting a picture to them, that's how they approach it, and after they make a fake movie they will try to make you 'feel' that it's real seeing now patterns and systems. This system that you're so concerned about that you're seeing everywhere is nothing but an evil agenda and an ideology hunting you. Okay how about the genital orchestrations, what is that all about you're not going to tell me that means something, no that is something really vile like what are these monsters doing? And they will use it to lie to you. Do you know they are pushing this as a system to people, trying to make them believe in it, and some think their soul is being messed with, some think that someone is superior, or that the person in front of them is a good actor and public speaker, some think that an actual sexual intercourse even rape is happening, some think that someone is lying to them, some think they're in a world that hates them, some are angered by church coughs, some think they're being yelled at, some worships these monsters as God, some think they are the masters over there heart beats (head raise, head shake, and all other puppeteers work) etc. When you see people seeing systems and patterns, looking at a mere orchestration know that they are deceived. When you see people who can't control their heart beats, when you see people that aren't doing things with their free will, whose emotions are flared, and shuffled at calculated specific time and moment, whose head shakes and head raises, facial expressions, soundings...are puppeted in a calculative way mechanically, that's reality, for example their body is mechanisticaly emulating rape, like a stringed puppet. No there soul isn't being touched or that emulation and orchestration doesn't mean they are being hated or loved or that the person is raping, or is being satisfied from it or is sad from it, or is accepting it, or that person is not evil and good because of the puppeteers orchestration, they are just being puppeted....You see these monsters are using them to make movies that poisons people's thinking and what you will see is a story telling of an evil puppeteer. Would you preach this to a little kid, but they will not just preach this to kids but even orchestrate them in a way that emulates rape, in a way that even encourages others in that direction! Emulation can very much look like a real thing but it's not. I will tell you why they are showing these things to you it's to deceive you, into evil things trust me. You might not believe it but this how rapists and murderers are created if these things are visible to them, and these monsters don't care they will show you many movies that will make you even more dangerous and deadly. What can I say be a subject of their deceit and see for yourself, and know this it's with deadly orchestrations that they connect you with others, it's not reality, it's not just fake though, is it, and when emotions are in you let a bell go off in your brain, knowing that you're surely confusing things just like that person being encouraged with rape and murder, you are surely being steered by a monster. It's Satan preaching from within us and from outside of us, be very careful about these things. In a way what they do is not that complicated it's mechanistic, they raise the head they dip it, they make us feel dangerous emotions, they patternize things etc... and using all these things we create systems that aren't there. It's all a made up fiction/ lie there bodily orchestrations, facial gesture orchestrations, the way they sound, your emotions etc. They are really deceiving people, know that in you and in others these evil, lying creatures exist, and they will show you and preach to you dangerous things from within and from outside, (they might even show you that no one exist, that you're in a simulation all alone, or that someone is raping you virtually, or that they are time travelers ordering things etc..) know this they are not truth tellers but evil lying monstrous creatures, they are not taming us or whatever. There's no system but a person being puppeted like a stringed doll, it's mechanistic in a way It doesn't mean anything. What means everything is that there are monsters in others and in all of us that puppet us like stringed puppets into all sorts of evil, sadisim, enemty etc... the evil that they do is what should bother you.

* All emotions are there inventions fit for their evil

using all this of course they can create a reality that is hard to discern it's validity, but everything they do is evil from this you can know all realities that they orchestrate and manipulate are not true, it's a signal that you want nothing to do with but take back, are they representing us or lying and pushing their agendas through us, people aren't represented by the thing in them, they are disrespected by them, it being represented by a monster and a liar is being represented then that's how they are represented, people aren't represented in the least by these creatures, if any kind of facial gesture, behavior etc is being displayed or being felt it's for a reason, and a very dangerous one... no one is a non harming human, or a rebelling for justice human, or a snake as they represent them as, if we don't know anything about these people that's that that's the reality. They don't represent this person, if they are presenting themselves as such they are a lying, very evil representatives... They are preaching their twisted agendas rather than representing the person as "A person that's not that monstrous, who's just acting like one" (more than too fs)

Now this is an agenda and there's so much wrong with it that might be pushed out

Who knows where it will get us, etc only God, we are blind to tell what's what don't we share minds with evil creatures

If they truly are presenting themselves as a representative of people they are bringing of there false stories meant for evil and playing it through these people... this person is seeing danger sighing, gulping, hawking and all, this person's accent is way way off (oh they can even control your accent) what a 'shame', this person is just a little threatening religious man, this person is just a little guilty man who's affected by religion, this guy is a parasite that should feel shame, this is a pestering talkative guy, this person is harmed by 'aggressors' their thoughts (would make others hate if it's not this same liar monster), this person is a religiously prideful man, this person believes this way that way, this person is a soft voiced person who's tender religious and easily broken that people can harm, this person is being crueler which is making the ladies lick their lips, this person wants freedom, this person doesn't like or even disgusted about Christianity, this person is overreacting embarrassingly about [illegible] who does he think he's, this person is a person in a tight family system where he's confined and oppressed, this person is a person that has experienced things unthinkable as a harmed person, this is a person who has experienced things unthinkable as an oppressor etc... even if devils represent and displayed sth (that's really illogical) for example like how this person doesn't want to interact with people bc there's a monster in him and he's now backing away and all (who's the monster telling him to rape, murder, molest, violate others, is it not the one making him back away from others puppeting him in that kind of way) that monster is still there now he's representing him (mostly other than tempting him with evil, communicating deadly things to others etc (because) he's still there, I don't understand why he should puppet this guy as someone who's afraid of his monstrousity... or like how the person is sad or is very amazed about the things causing enmity sitting in peoples bodies and lifes etc they display it certainly not bc they want to tell truth but for their own agendas, probably it's not even what you think it is, they are not presenting you as you think they're but probably who knows as someone disgusted with others, how a harmed person looks like, maybe they have gone too far and [illegible] using me for many sadistic things, to preach what they've always been preaching to twist minds... and then they will tell you someone is having sex in the spiritual realm harming you on your spiritual belly & chest, zips are opening up for this and that purpose, this person is harming in this way for this purpose, this person is harmed for this about his sin (which they will propose as good to add it), this person doesn't care about his conscience as much as possible [illegible], you are overreacting about how

We have been very much twisted

Unable to see truth

What's Truth? Is a very right question to ask!

The devil is a representative of evil not truth

It's clearly evil

we don't need people that are harmful monstrous

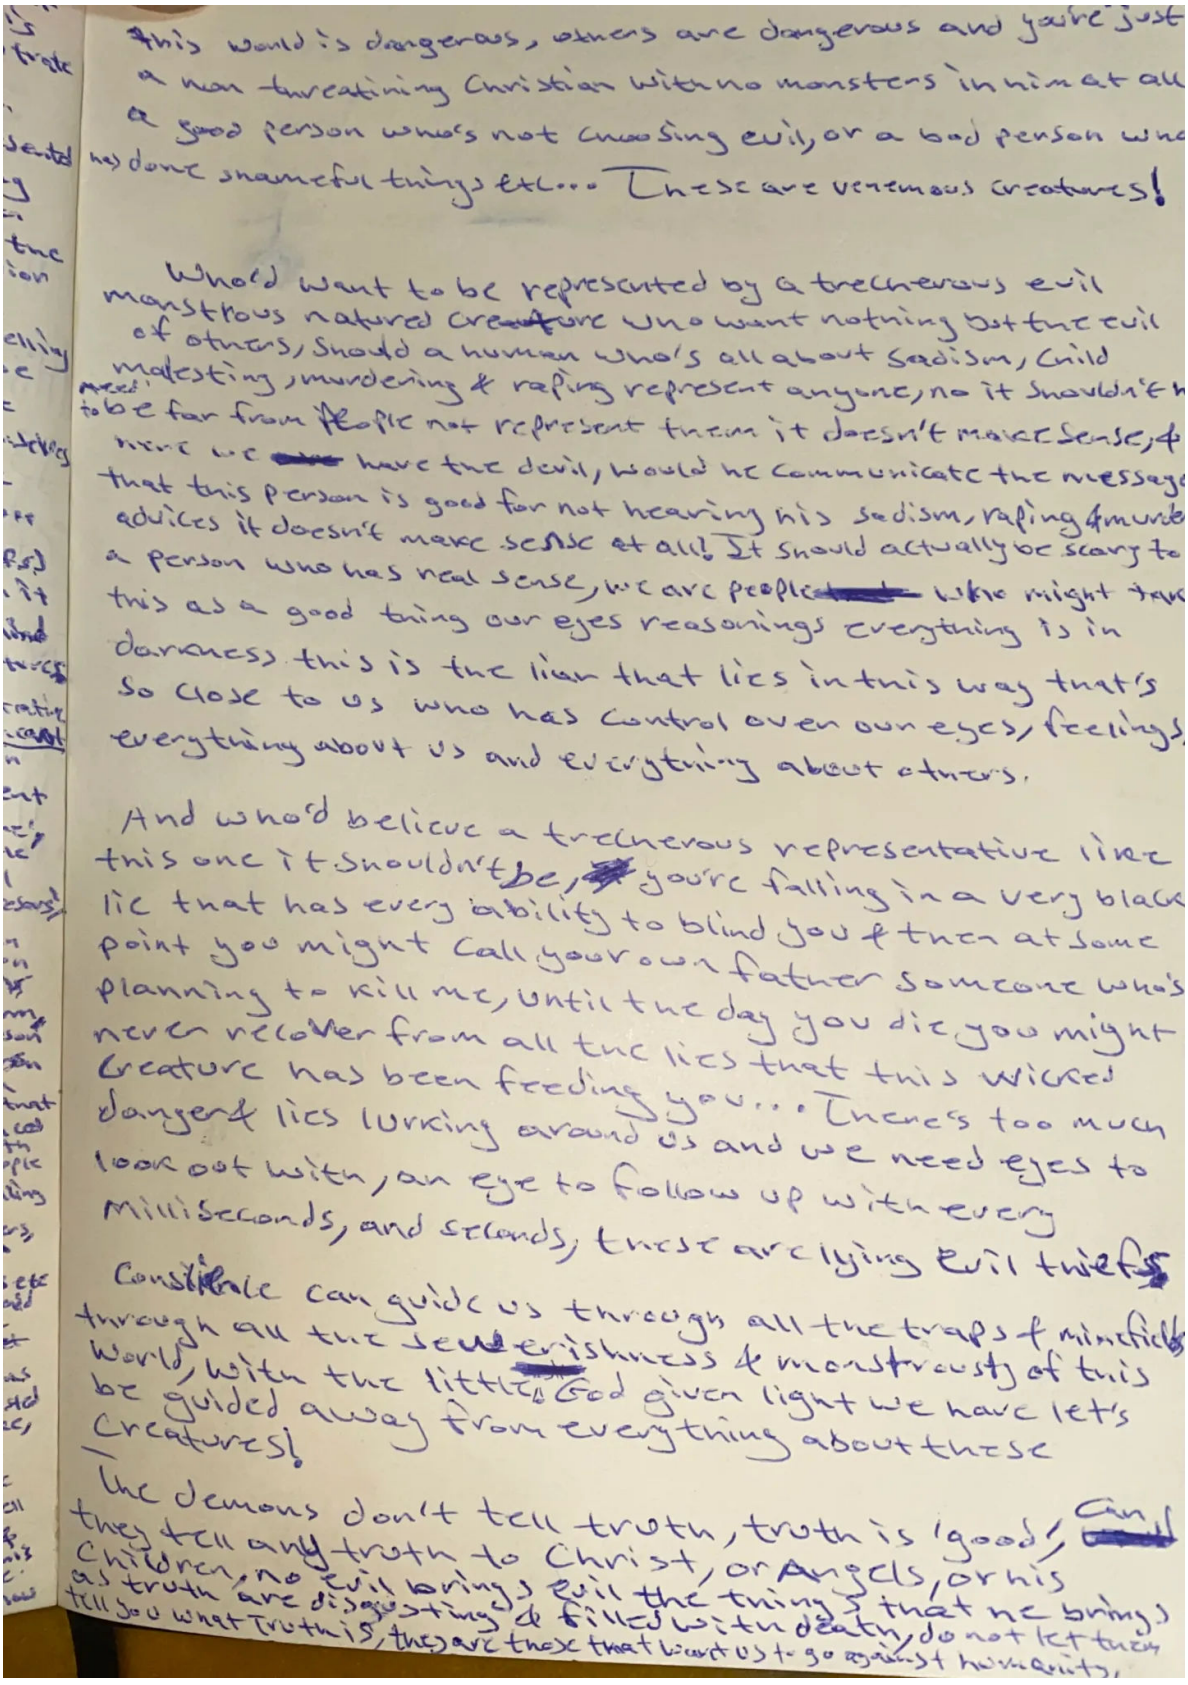
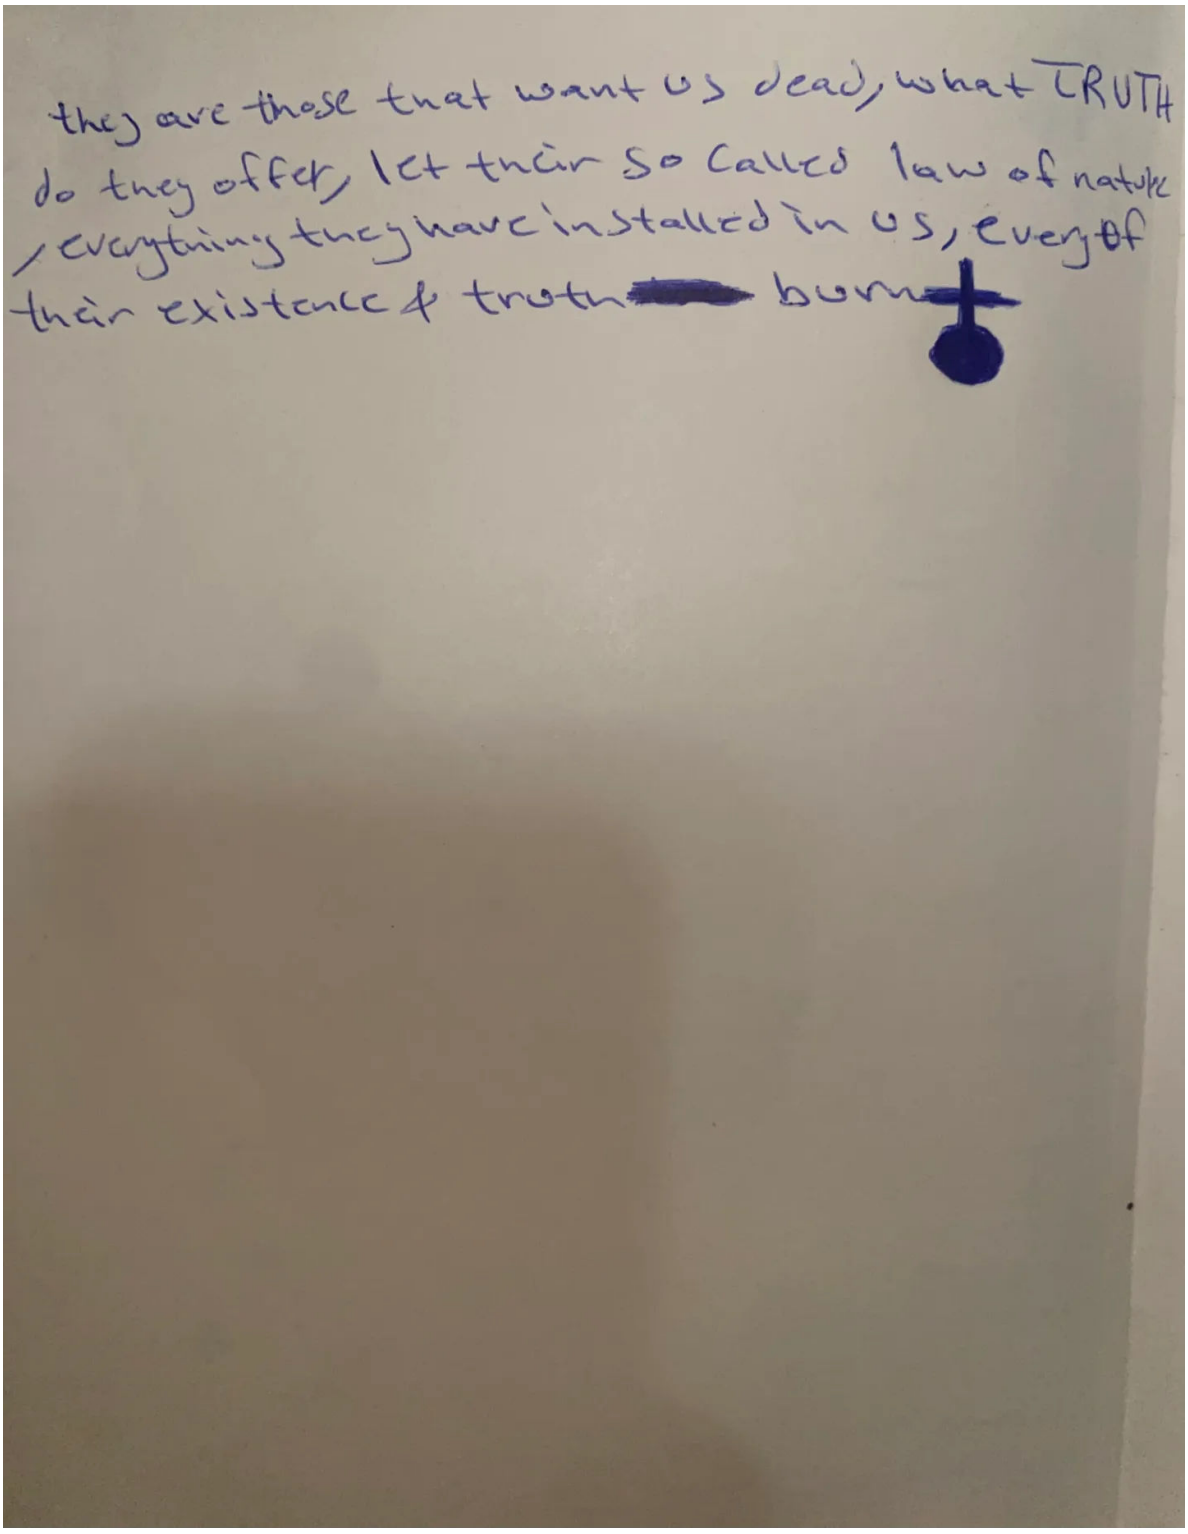
Like it's not good to drive under the influence of alcohol especially if it's consumed in a large amount, you shouldn't be under the influence of deadly Monsters and interact with others, all 'interactions' are touched by their evil, 'with their tools' ⟶ 'Emotions' (another word for manifestations of Demons) or other Orchestrations...etc we are under the influence of monsters that cloud our judgments, into death. From our normal state which is seeing each-other just like Christ did, to all sorts of enemty and evil, nothing in us (a demonic monster) can enable 'CHRIST LIKENESS', it's a hurdle to it, it will try to stop you as much as it can, because Christ is the only opposition it has.



You think you're with a human being, you're with a man alloyed with another worldly monster and demon, but at the same time with Christ's children.



"I don't believe Christ ever depended on these evil tools of monsters, I know he never did, that's why I should be the same." You're always Cruel everything about you is evil, whatever you do, whatever you go through there's a cruel evil demon manifesting through you, through everything you're so evil you're beast like, there are literal demons manifesting and operating through you. Because we are the embodiment of evil (almost close to being a Nephilim) we can't know what Love is we have become a storehouse for evil. In light of Love in light of Christ likeness sinfulness and monstrosity is clear, we know what it means. It's better to not exist than to be Loveless or Sinful like we are, let alone a playground for twisted demonic minds, they will get there share in a lake of fire. The Lord is there to wash away our sins for once and for all, we will be free from these dark demonic garments, his glory and light is greater than any demon, Amen 🙏

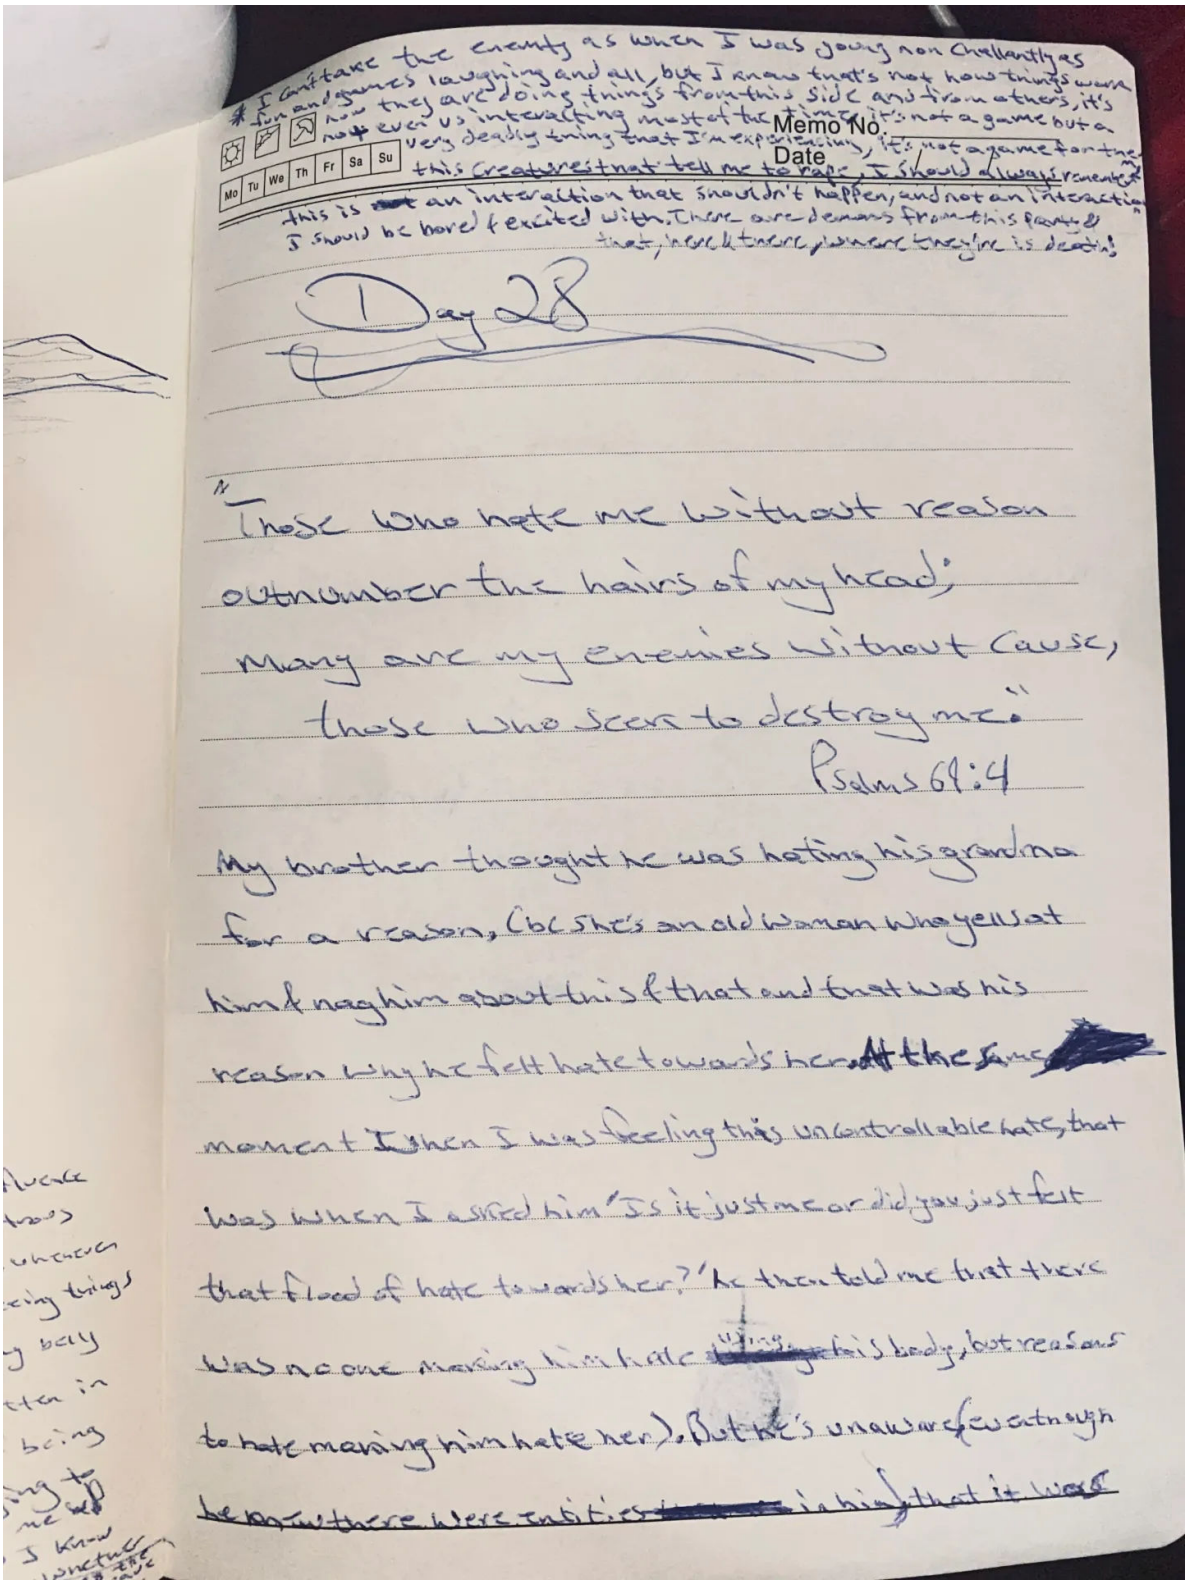
If you want to see how evil and disgusting they are just see how they they puppet little kids, kids who don't know they're being puppeted for evil purposes, that's how mankind is puppeted by these wicked monsters.



You have to always remember that we are derived from the supernatural on high from Zion and not from the laws and principles of this world, like evolution, survival of the fittest, or demonic principles that say you're useless etc,...We have fallen into this state of being and into the principles of this world, that's what 'the fall' is all about. They are evil doers and not truth tellers only listen to the God that supersedes them in everything. Imagine a creature so filthy and vile, who can analyze the 8d world, and deal with sophisticated matters like emotions, and other unhumanly and inhumanly realities. Whose only goal is to make your life a torture and a bloodbath, your real purpose isn't really far from it's purpose, in a way it's linked to it. I mean if they exist and they are not God, evolution or me being useless is indeed a lie. If these creatures exist concepts like other dimension, soul, supernatural existence pop up, I know I am not only bound to this world but I'm also fated to the other, maybe they are demons (by their fruits you shall know them), and maybe there's a God who created them but also you, maybe there's a God who created them but also the world they orchestrate into evil (they don't order things they destroy things). Why you, maybe surely you're not what the devil tells you, a useless junk? ...It's clear they are not God:

God must be in the equation of everything he's a source of everything, he's the uncaused causer, the finality of causation who even caused these demons, he's the only one who can tell you what's true, and these creatures will try to take his place, telling you this and that, how the world operates or who human beings are trying to define us. Are they God though?

Let's start from here, God is, Omniscient, Omnipresent, Eternal, and Immutable. If one fails in who you call God that's not God at all. Definitely these monsters are not God.

God cannot be restrained by what he created can he be restrained by a planet he created, would he be unable to lift it? No if he's more powerful than the planet he should be able to lift it or separate it to atom level even beyond that horizon? These creature's will can be hindered or fought back, for example the most powerful method they try to steer you with is using emotions and bodily orchestrations you can reject it noticing it, (they're not respecting your will they're tyrant demons wanting everything to go their way, so when you reject them it means a huge blow to their face).

Did I limit this 'God' is he powerless enough that I can stop him or so powerless enough that he has to deceive me or push an influence on me, an influence that's so imperfect that a human can call imperfect and even reject? That's an imperfect supernatural being with a borrowed power. They are the weakest supernatural creature, who's below them?

They are also limited by time if God created everything, he must have power over everything. Otherwise something outside of him would limit him, which contradicts the idea of God as ground of all existence, aren't they limited by time we will see?

Here's how they're not Omniscient, they can't see the future, so they tighten up your belly, blind your mind and try to hide things from you, almost like they are surprised accidentally by what you're about to uncover or discover. If God can see the future he wouldn't act like a thief that's about to get caught, that's not God-like at all, this is so below God.

They are not Omniscient because they're not error free they make errors that God doesn't, they're limited or their will depends on the other person's will...their will is to deceive you into doing evil, accepting it or rejecting it can interfere with their will, they have to knock doors, you have to decide over their monstrous will. They might try to interfere with it imperfectly though not 'divinely' as if they are roofing you, they are like deadly sirens who aren't God. | A supernatural replica of an imperfect interference 'with alcohol' or 'with voices of sirens' into making you do evil is (that's what they do) manipulation using emotion they created or someways of orchestrating people in a mechanistic way etc... (these are some imperfect shameful tactics they use). Yes they roofied you (by the way, they 'roffie' you like sirens, into bloodshed, don't take it into anywhere else all emotions wether beastiality, anger, or fear or...whatever, is evil, never forget this) but never steered your conscience into being Cane, Eve, Peter or Judas.

They’re not eternal because they have to exist without a beginning or an end, they can’t even see what’s going to happen minutes later.

If they are not God, they are not wise knowing ‘how to order all things’ they’re monstrous confused bunches not truth based creatures. They’re not God that’s why you see them trying to convince people that a silly waist movement of thrusting, or a movement of the head, or legs opening, or fear, or roof foot steps, or beastiality emotion, right leg toe, left leg toe etc..that they orchestrate means some order that came from the ‘gods’, no it’s a stupid filthy immoral false based orchestration and act that are meant to create conflicts, they are not God to determine the law of nature. They are not truth tellers but only beasts who do evil, I doubt if they even know what the meaning of truth even means, in that disgusting, dark mind of theirs. Yes they have a demons playground that they created with all of its evil laws and rules but is it really theirs, no you see your phone can’t be yours fully when it’s supervised by someone that has more control over your phone, this demonic playground is also the same way supervised by God. These devils will promise you power and all, if you bow down to them but even what they call power for example in Christ’s temptation ‘the riches and all kingdoms of the earth’ doesn’t really belong to them but to God, it’s the possession of God, it calls mine, twists it etc...The demonic world that you fear is the same way, God interferes in it, it’s God’s world that he supervises that it uses to scare you and twists you with. They’re not God they’re under him disturbing creatures that once lived peacefully with out evil or sin. It’s God’s world even when they’re disturbing your peace. They don’t act according to their own will because they’re not free he’s more sovereign over their evil rule book or world that they invented meaning he can interfere with it with more power and will, even in this world he’s more powerful than them and of any limit that can hinder them, they have limits thanks be to our Lord. If you are to die tomorrow because of them its God knowing it and allowing it that these things happen give everything to God obey his will at all times, let nothing shake you out of the will of the Father. They’re not God that’s what is meant by, “Satan like everyone is also under the providence of God." They're under the ordinance of someone, 'they don't have a providence of their own', they're just like any created being in God's world, that has been given space, that's who they're, don't think for a moment they're order makers and creators, all their orders are filled with absurdities, trivialities, and lies, would we contribute the magnificence and awesomeness of God to them, Oh Lord! Where is the natural law order in a lie, that law is a lie, your legs opening or head raise and dip, or beastiality or fear, is a filthy lie it's sedation and pupeting, everything that's not Christ-like is a lie, these are lies masquerading as laws created in the playground of beasts to make you kill your own mother, father, and every Christ's children that are family in him, don't be influenced by them, they're there to make us kill each other, reject the immoral beast in you, like others are doing. Remember too that the monster in you, and in others is nothing but a creature under God's will that supersedes them in everything be it in beauty, grace, magnificence,..though it's boasting, blasphemy and evil is unimaginable, all this though in his providence. Yes they created a law and made us all zombies in their playground with everything they installed in us, but freedom from these garments is coming, punishment of this fool is coming. Satan itself is a host like every one, one day they will bow down to the Lord of Hosts in hell. When it influences you in someways know every time that they are weak diseases of existence.

So don't give the attributes of Omniscience, Omnipresence & Omnipotence to these filthy creatures. Only if they have these qualities of God can they be God. Now see, they have minds that contemplate and manipulate the 3+ dimension, yet they are so 'imperfect' what could they be? They're higher than man but lower than God, and their purpose is only to do evil, don't they resemble fallen angels or Demons? Don't let these lying monsters tell you what you are or who others are, you're from up on high from Zion's gate. Amen 🙏

Shame, guilt, hate, anger, lust, fear, laughter, boredom, sadness, bullying, pride, digust, Every 'emotion' that can make us behave in certain ways aren't felt for the right reasons. into this world. They are demons.

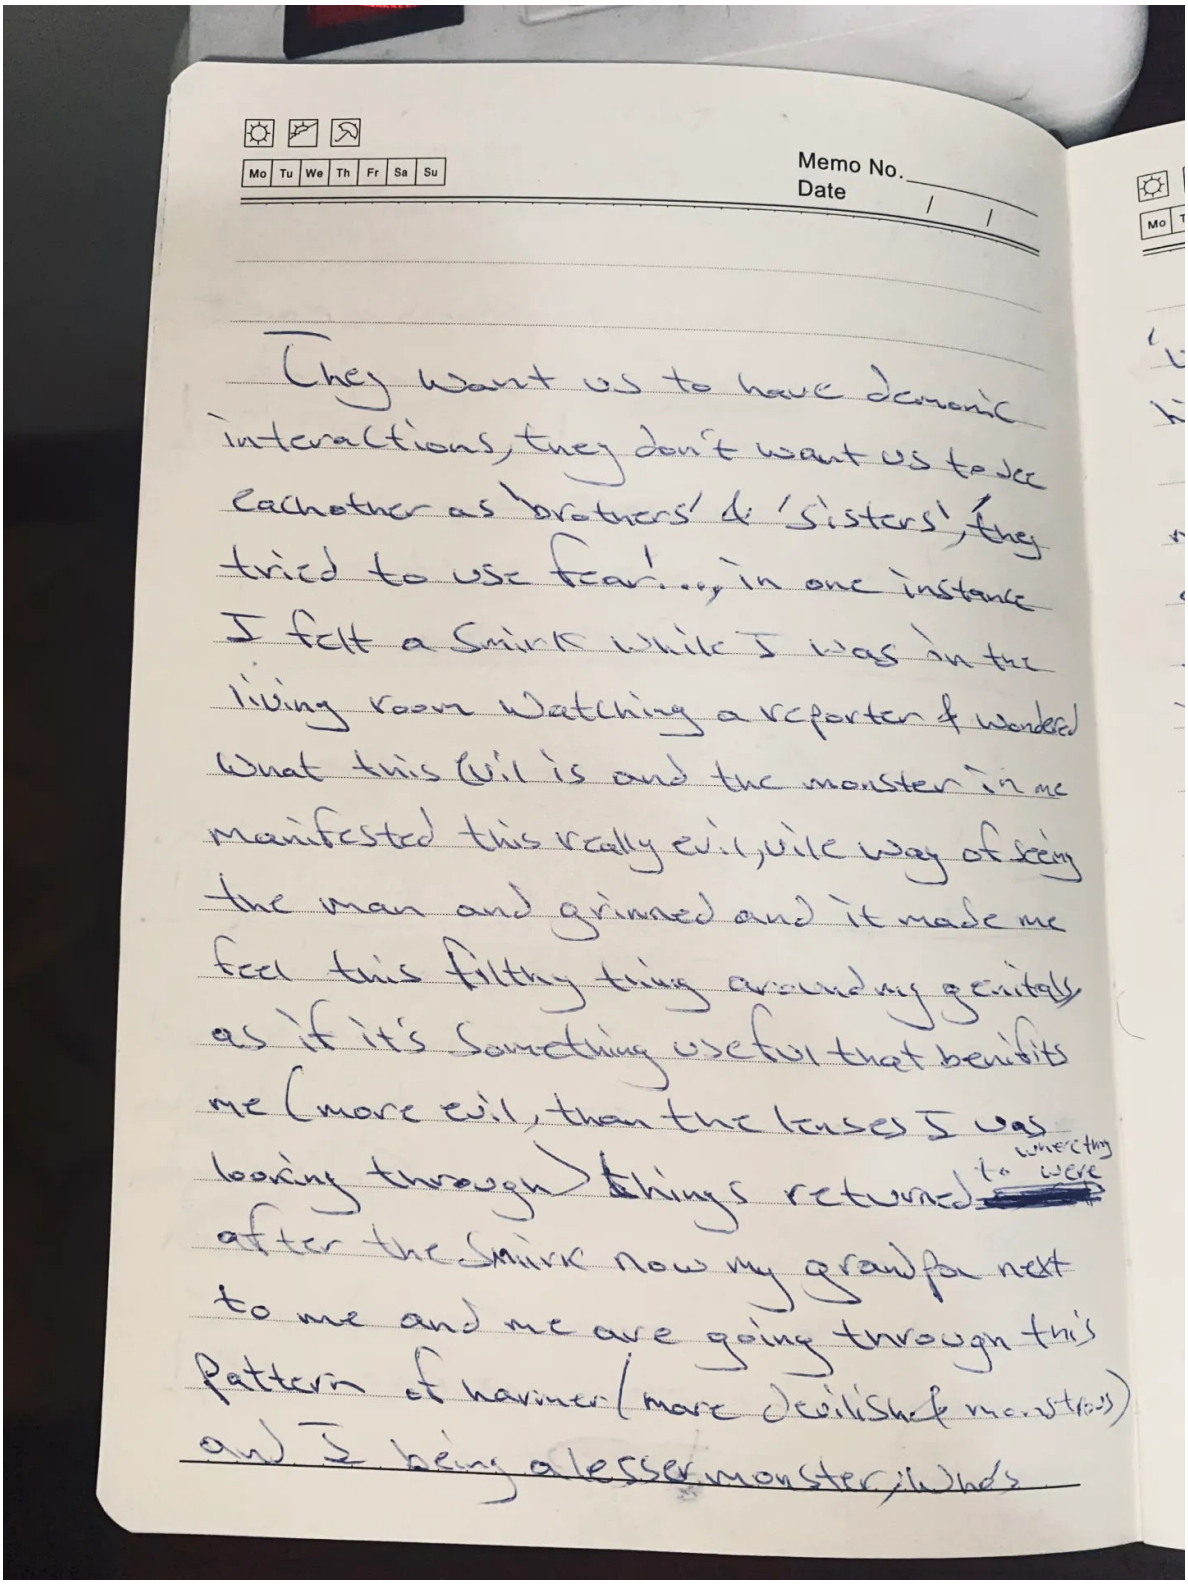
Every interaction in whatever shape or form is evil. Because it's demons orchestrating it.



Strengthen brothers and sisters, expect your interaction with demons to be nothing but demonic and vile. When you're bullied and overwhelmed with pain, there's a place to go. Go to the foot of the cross. You have a Father, a Friend, a Counselor, and a Cleanser. He is the Mighty God and King of Kings; in Him is our only refuge. In the face of evil, don't let anyone tell you otherwise—they are nothing but liars.

You're not useless or someone who can't do a thing, when you're with them, you're Hitler that's about to be used, that should make you someone who can hinder their evil plans they have in store, they want to use you for evil. If not a complete power you have enough power to not be a puppet for evil monsters that want to do evil. You have enough power if not complete, to be like Christ, to love your brothers and sisters like Christ did. That's where we can win, and shouldn't lose,.., Satan is like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour! Don't let them get into your head, check your interactions, that false interactions they orchestrate to steer you, aren't shaping you! May the Lord tell them the terror that awaits them.✠ Always try not to be psychologically manipulated into killing others, that's where you have to be watchful. And don't let them get in the way of Christ they will be doing all sorts of evil things, he's our only savior who can save us, he's our only life rope in this abyss, strengthen.

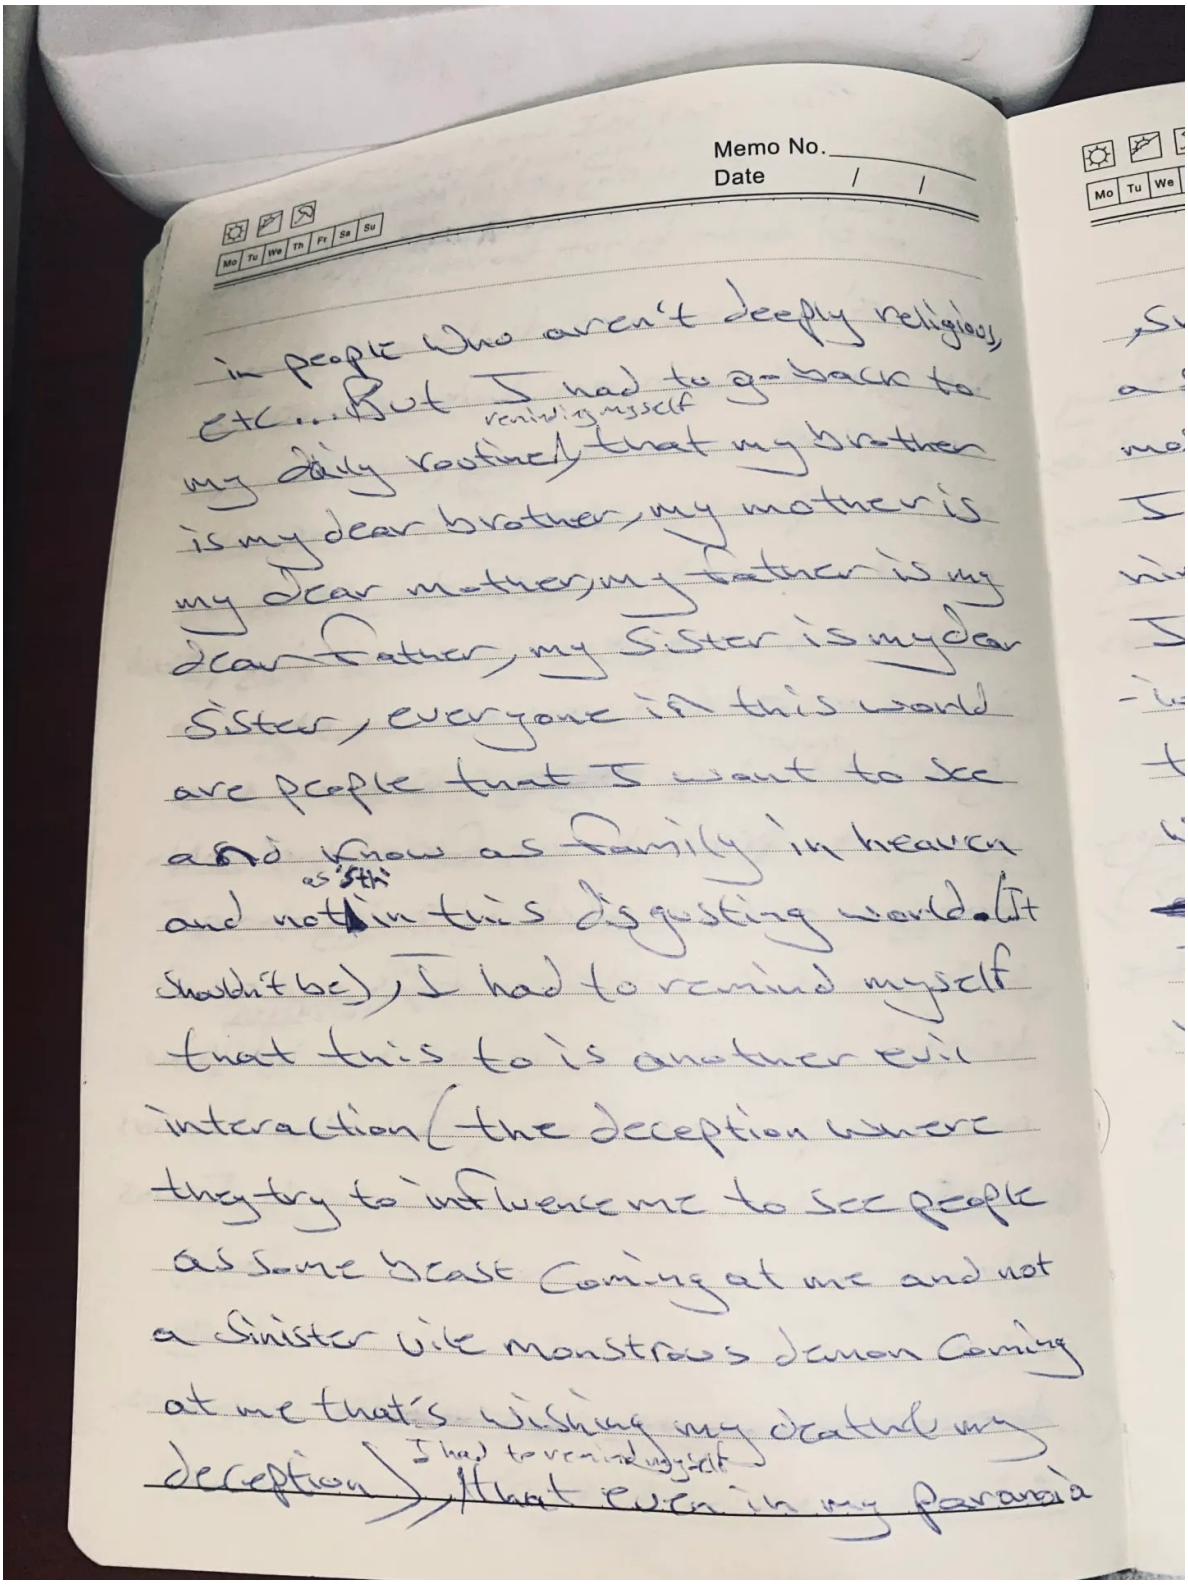
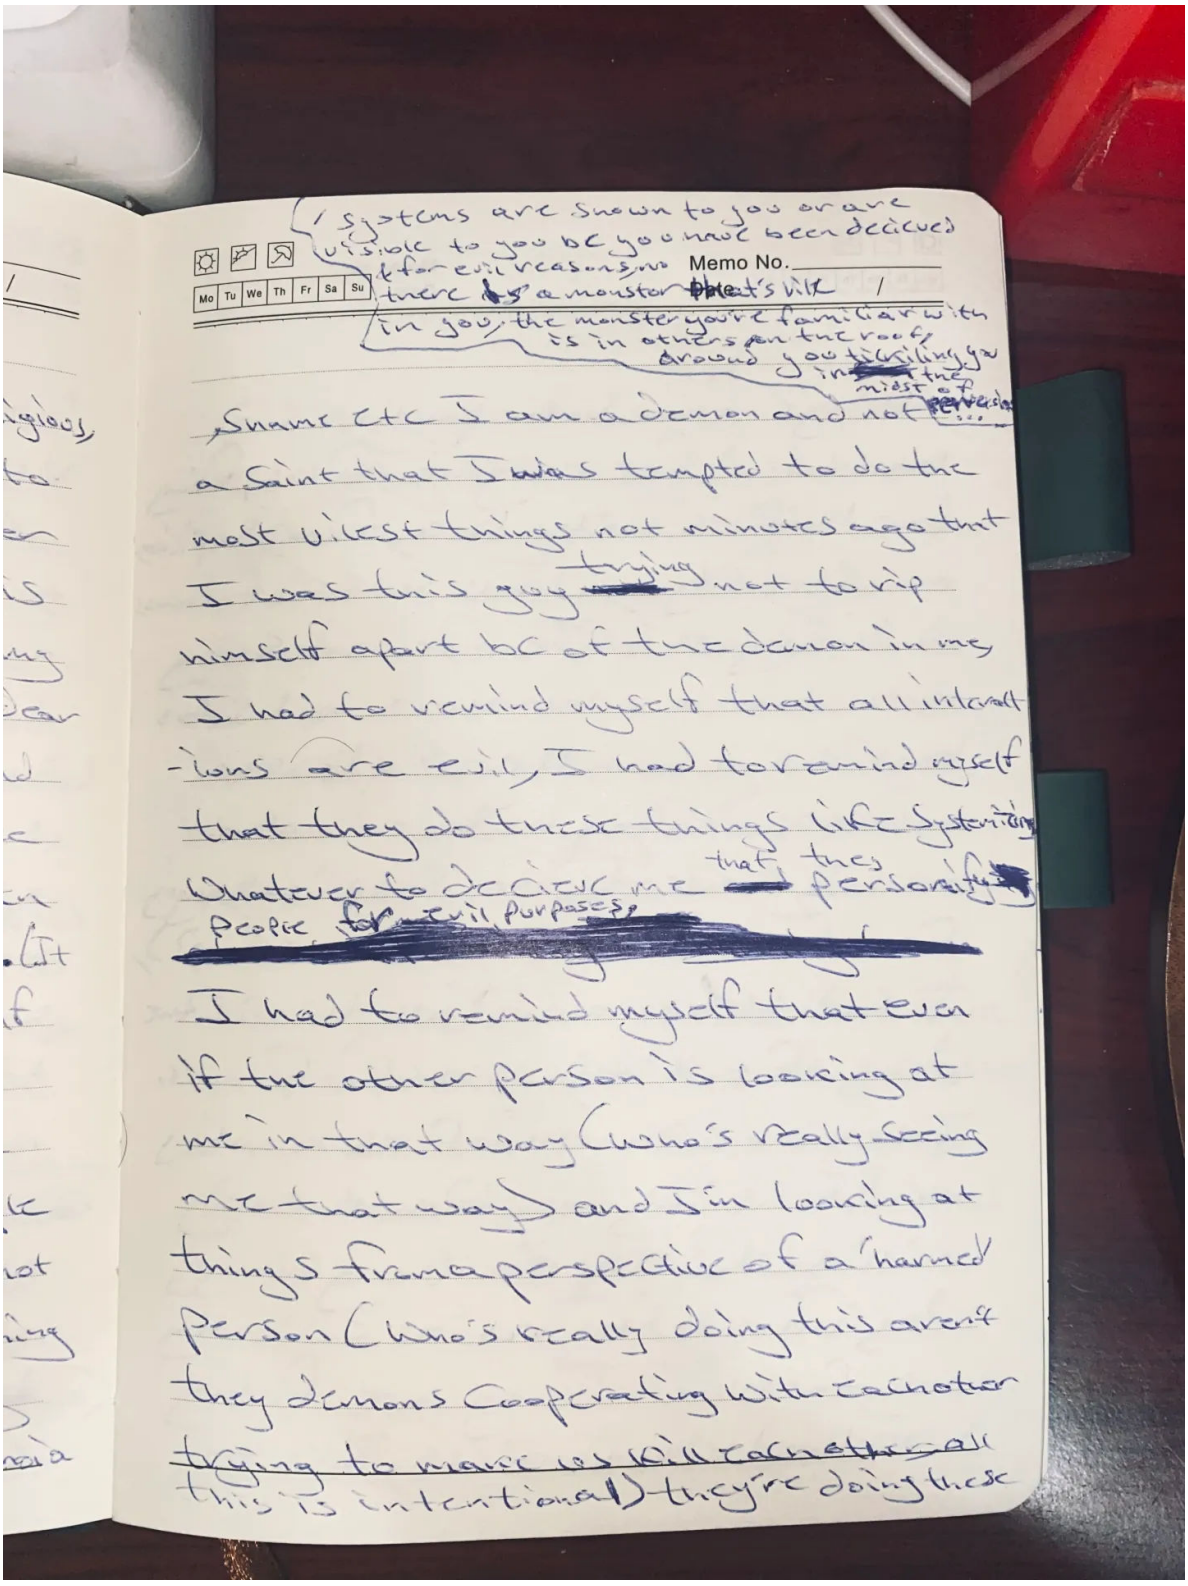
For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm. Help us from demons Father!✠

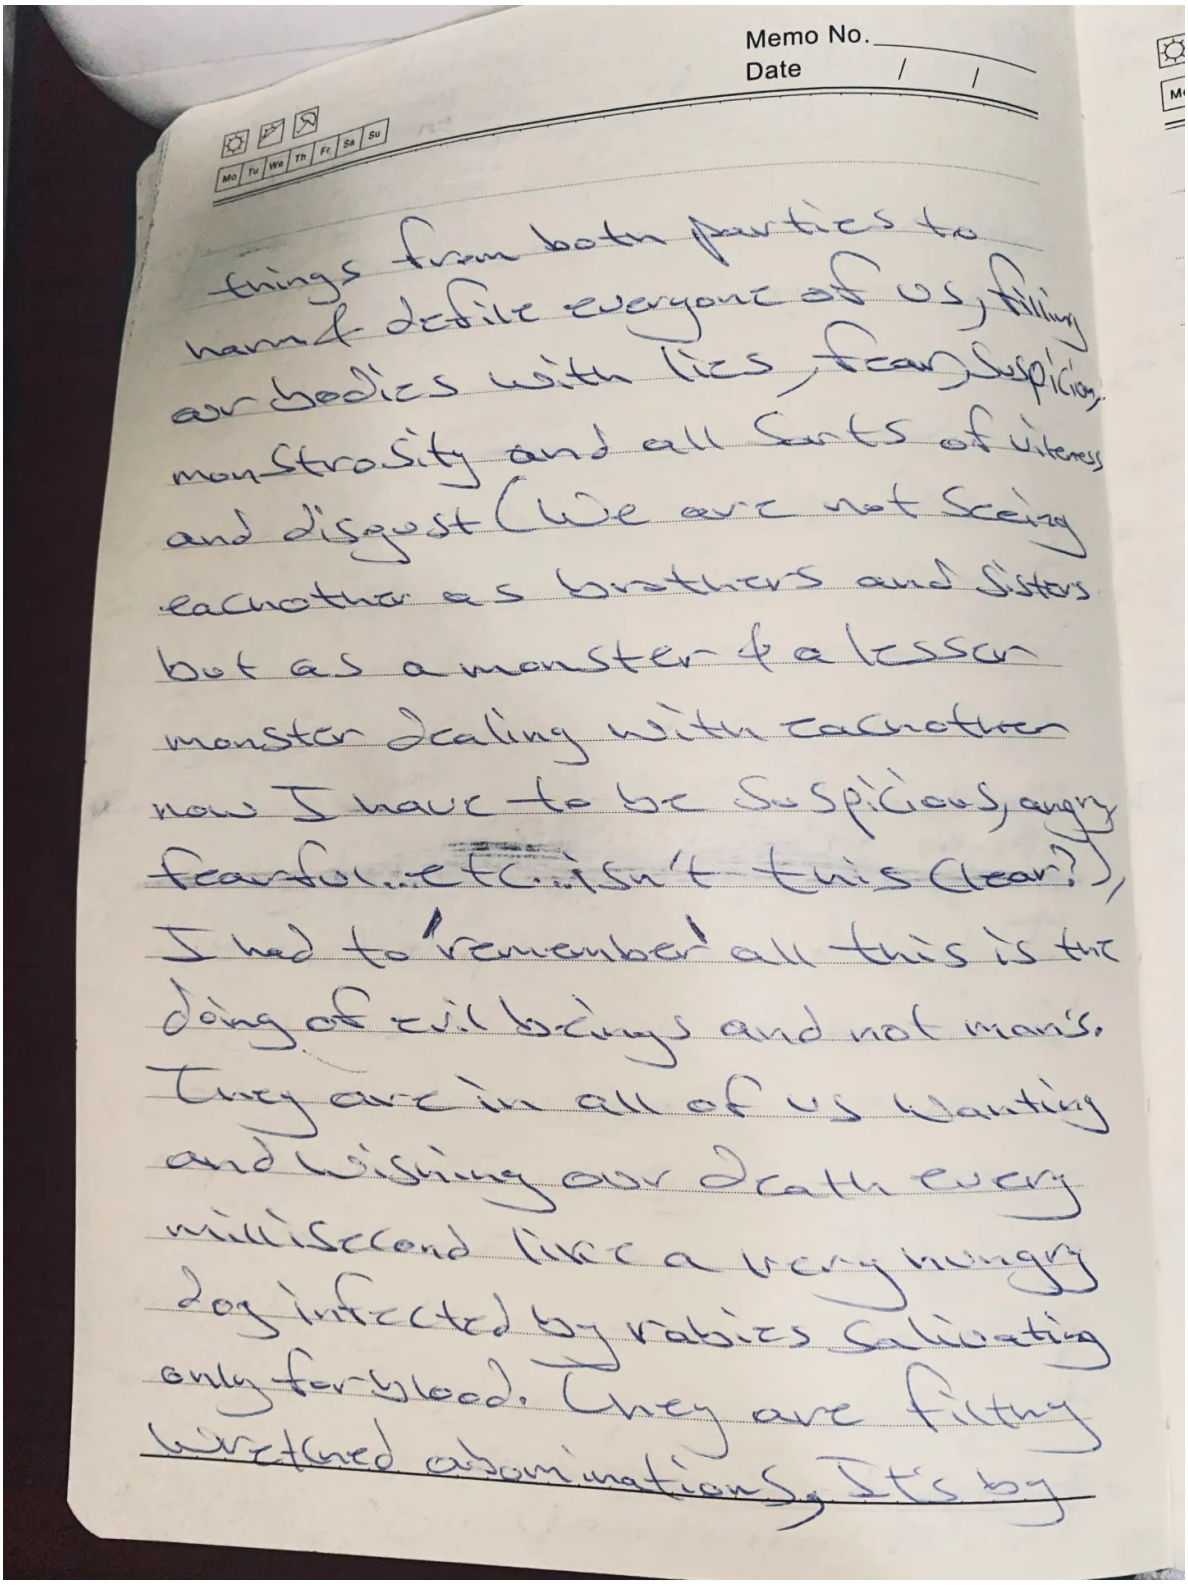


They want you to see them as someone you can interact with normally, not as demons, when you see them as demons things start to change, they will even try to manipulate you into feeling okay about their presence. Be far from their filth.

https://zamirwadelahuyouttube.wordpress.com/ 12/03/2026, 7:29 PM



The Biggest Thing That They Can Come Against Is God! ✠



Most of the orchestrations are filled with lies. Why lie? For evil purposes. Know that they are demons trying to deceive you for millions different evil reasons and you will never be deceived, you're like a night watch on guard. They want us to kill eachother that's where all lies lead to, for us not to see each other in a Christ like way. They are not human liars, they are disgusting monstrous liars, don't let them get into you and contaminate you. Remember almost every part of an interaction is an orchestration, all orchestrations are lies, all of them are 'preaching something dirty and evil', to defile and send people into evil places.

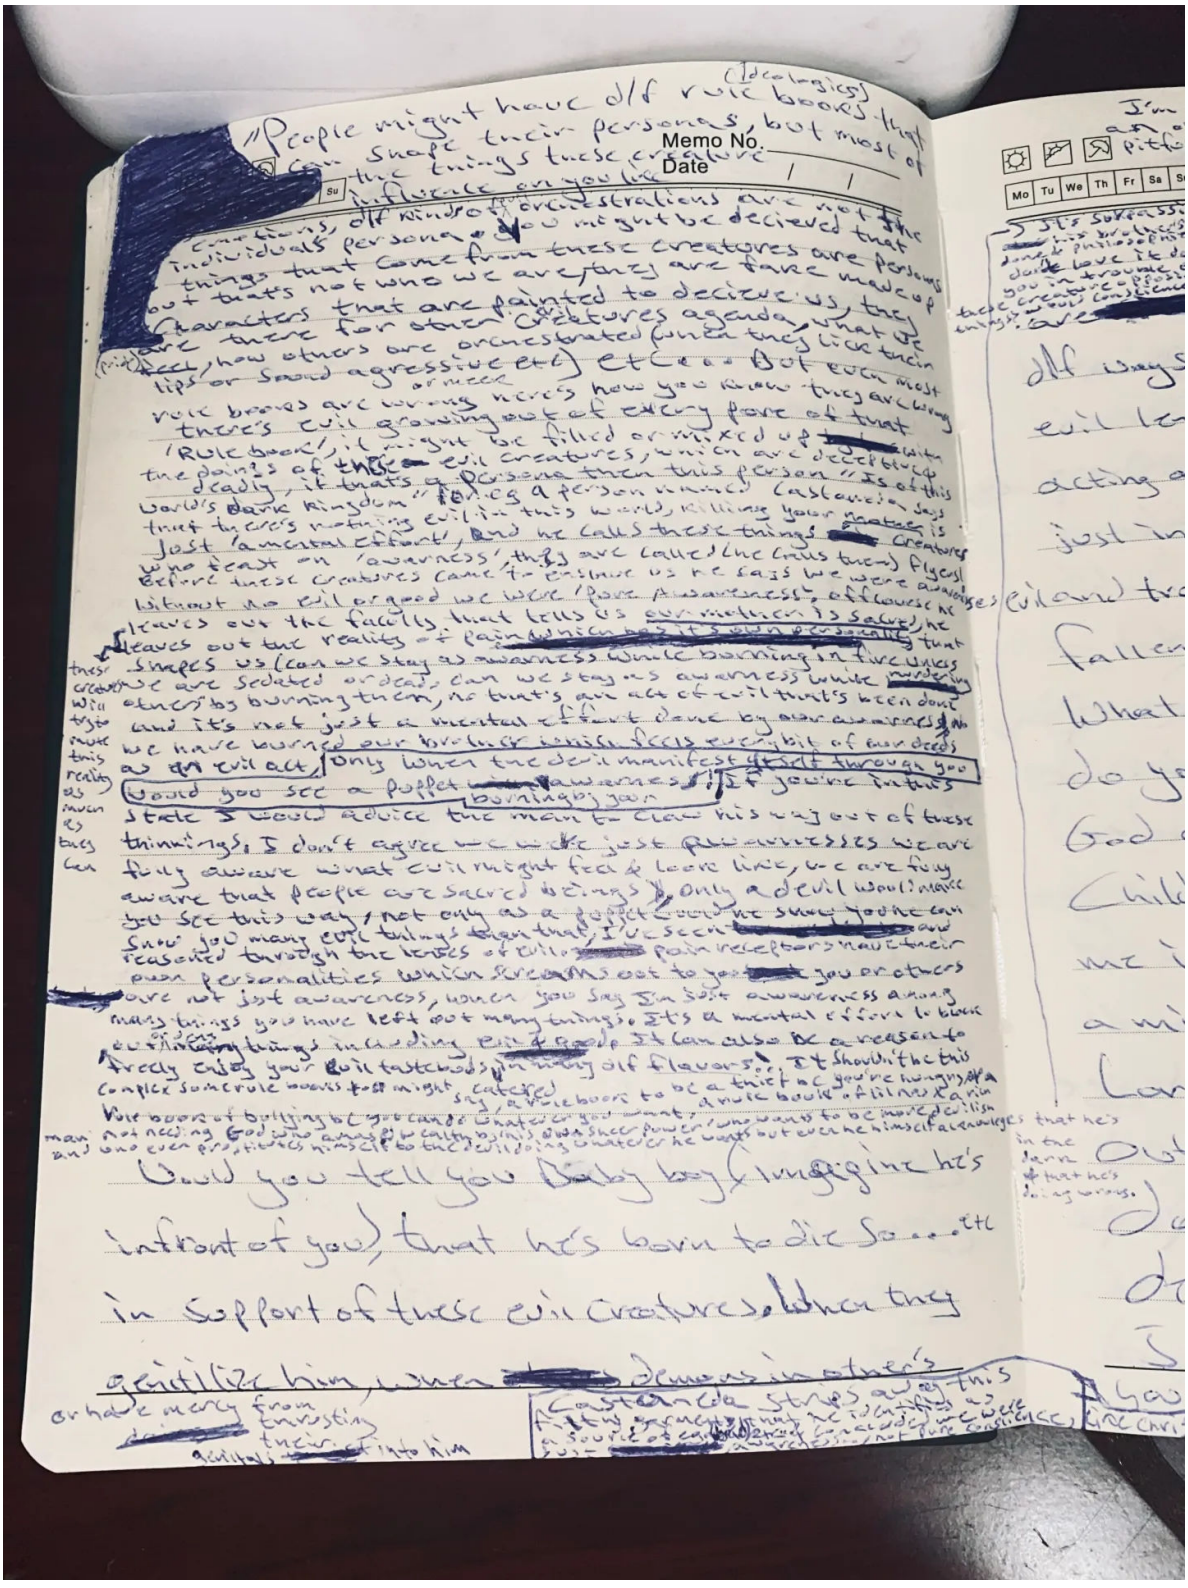
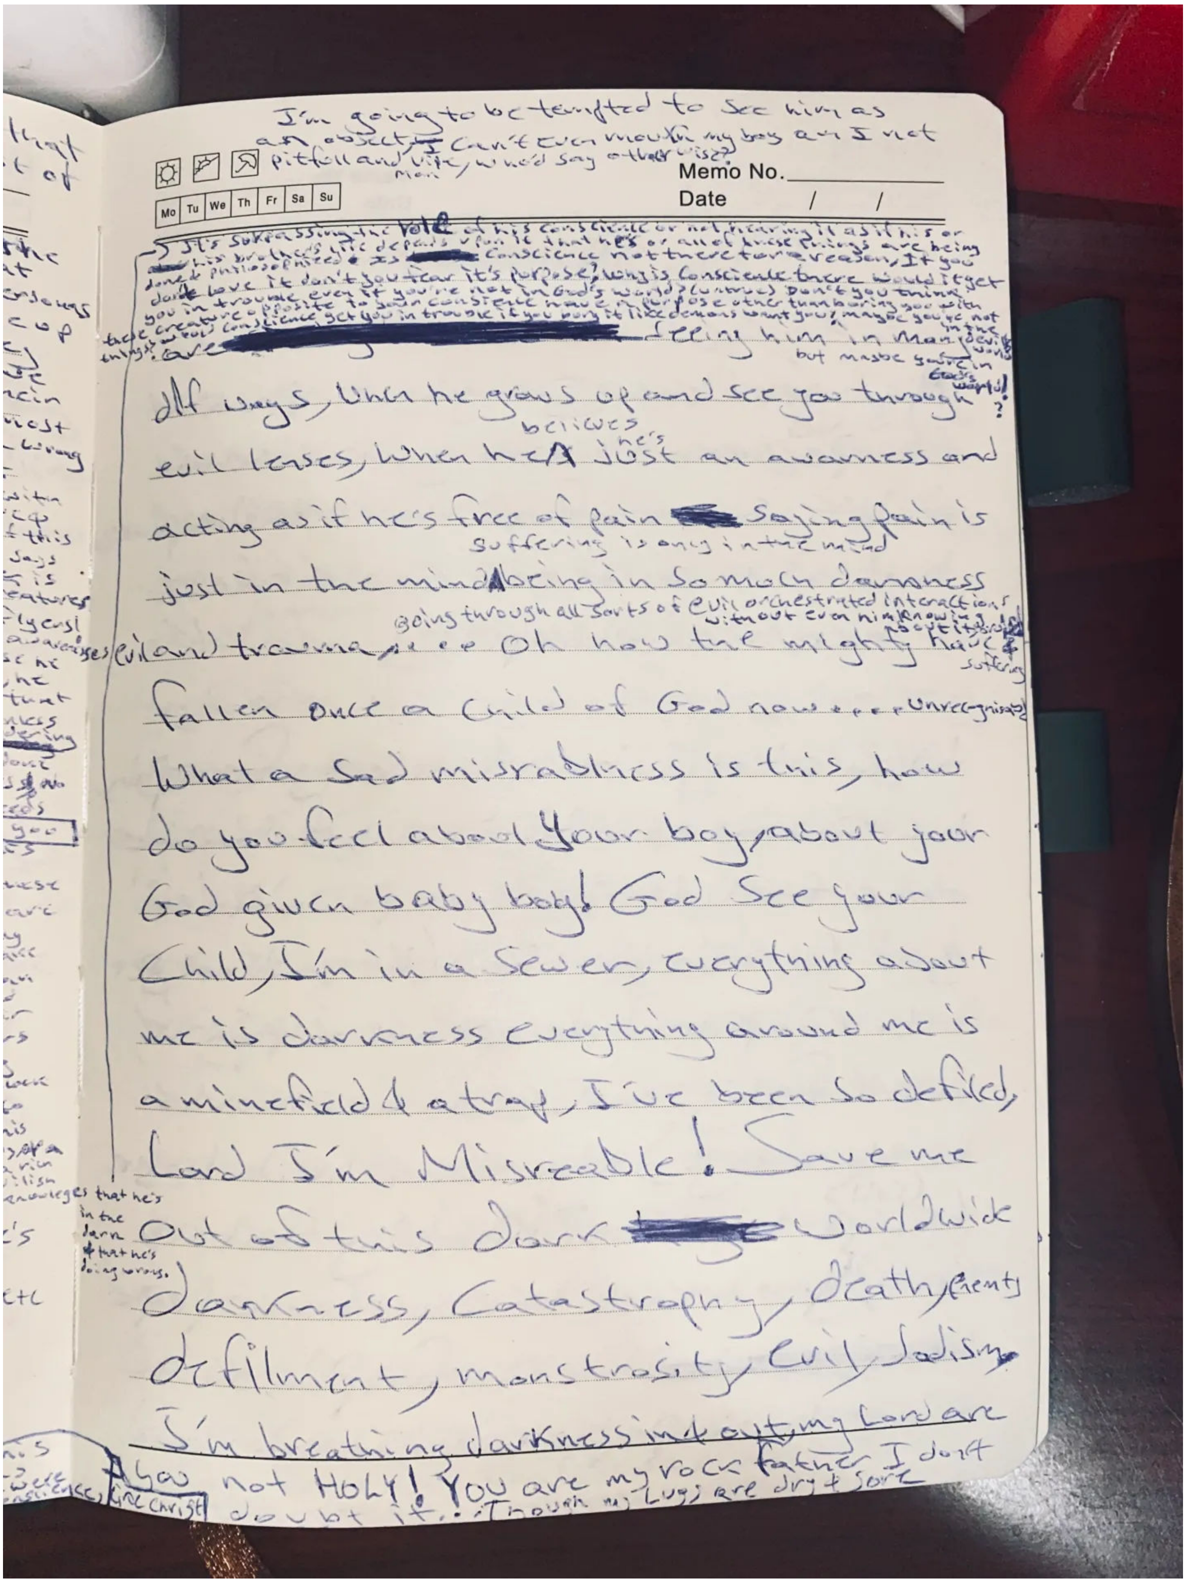
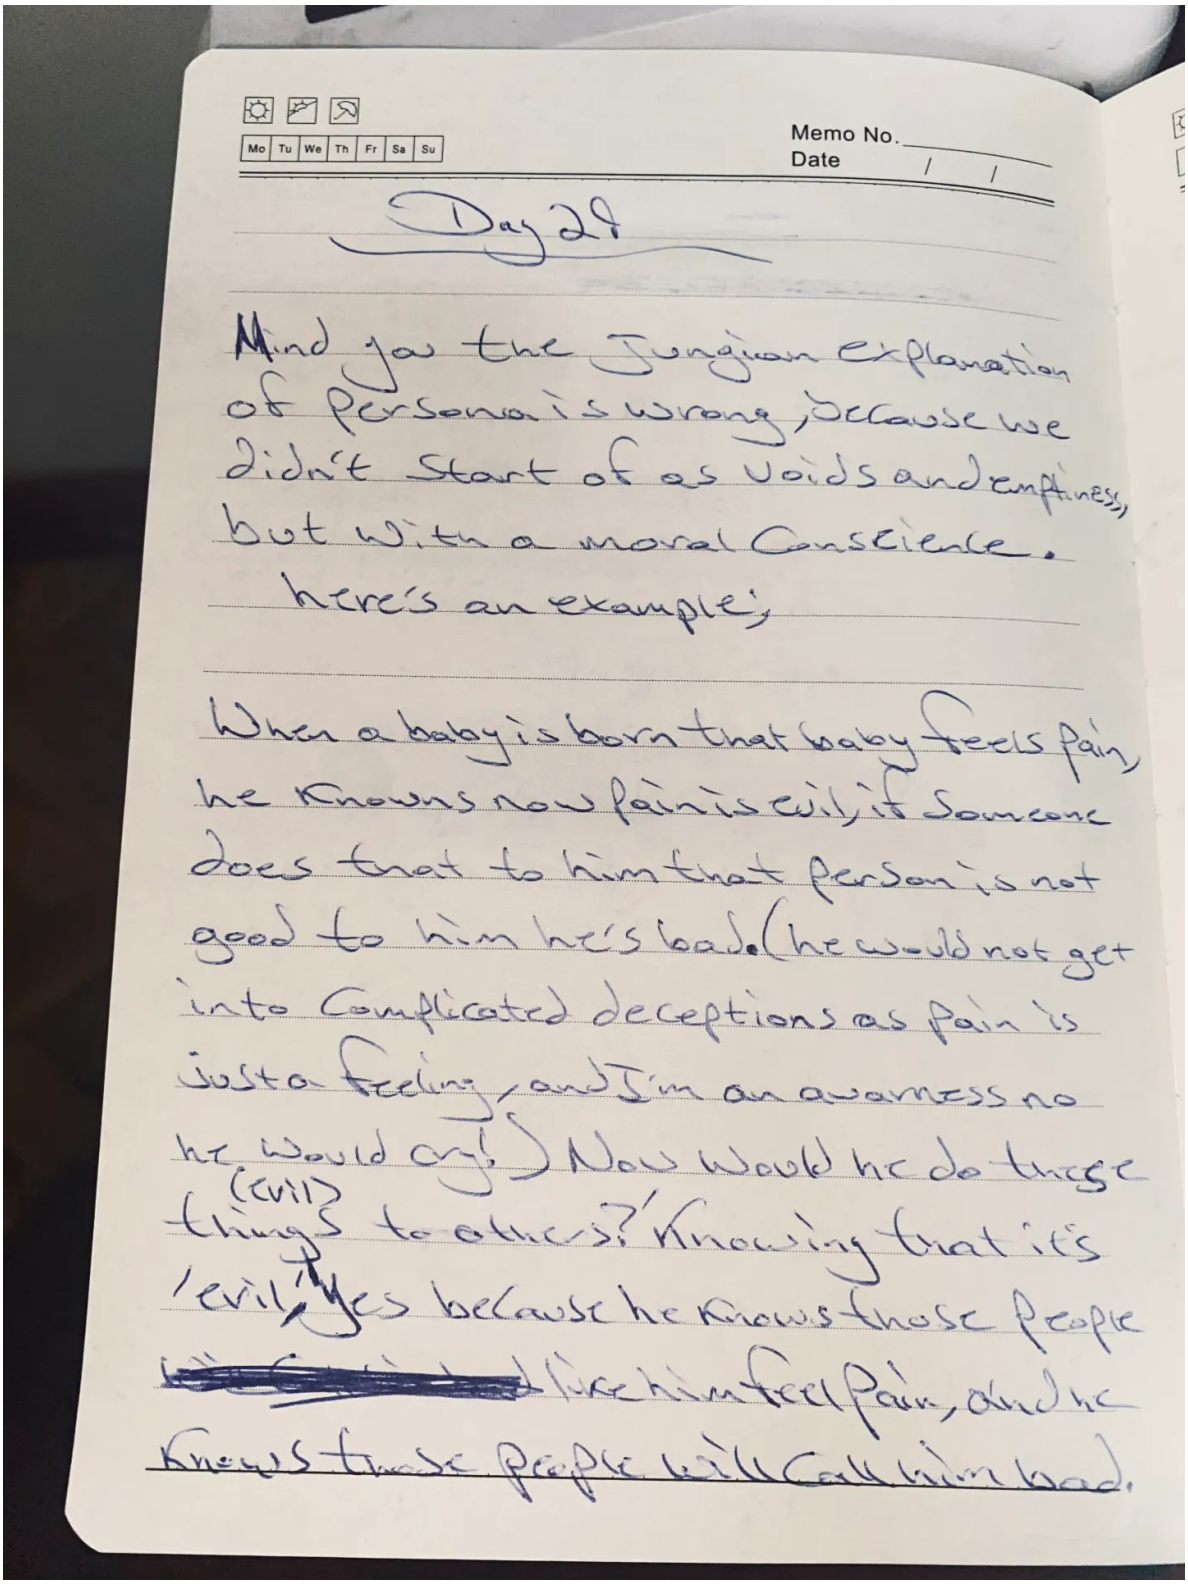
As much as you can don’t interact with these monsters, it’s them that mostly disturb your peace, the more you do the more they will fill you with darkness. They will say this and that, make sure to check that they are not preaching through ‘interactions’ and ‘emotions’, they will try to enforce things, discourage things, put you into despair...many many things be strong that being there with them isn’t defining you. Siren voices 🧜‍♂️ are disturbing, here we have demons, be very very careful.



Here's something..I don't know how to connect with people, wearing these garments. All I know is that people are Christ's children.



Don't accept there standards! But only Christ's, through whatever we can do this, he's our strength. The only enemy is the monster, it's the dark demon. Don't fall for that sewer. Don't waver on your identity, there's no greater thing than a child of God. You're wonderfully made!



In many shape or form they will tell you you're a victim, remember you are someone holding a demon in you, then you won't be deceived by evil, you wouldn't have enemies but someone to protect others from. Don't cheapen the monster that you're not exposing to others, it's a demon, it's vile, it's only one step away from killing. It would not have been an evil place if we were all like this! Responsibility above all things, to Love our neighbors as our self!,..We can't love with a monster in us, let's love with the littlest thing that we have. One day being free from these filthy abominable garments we will be clothed with Christ's nature. Amen 🙏

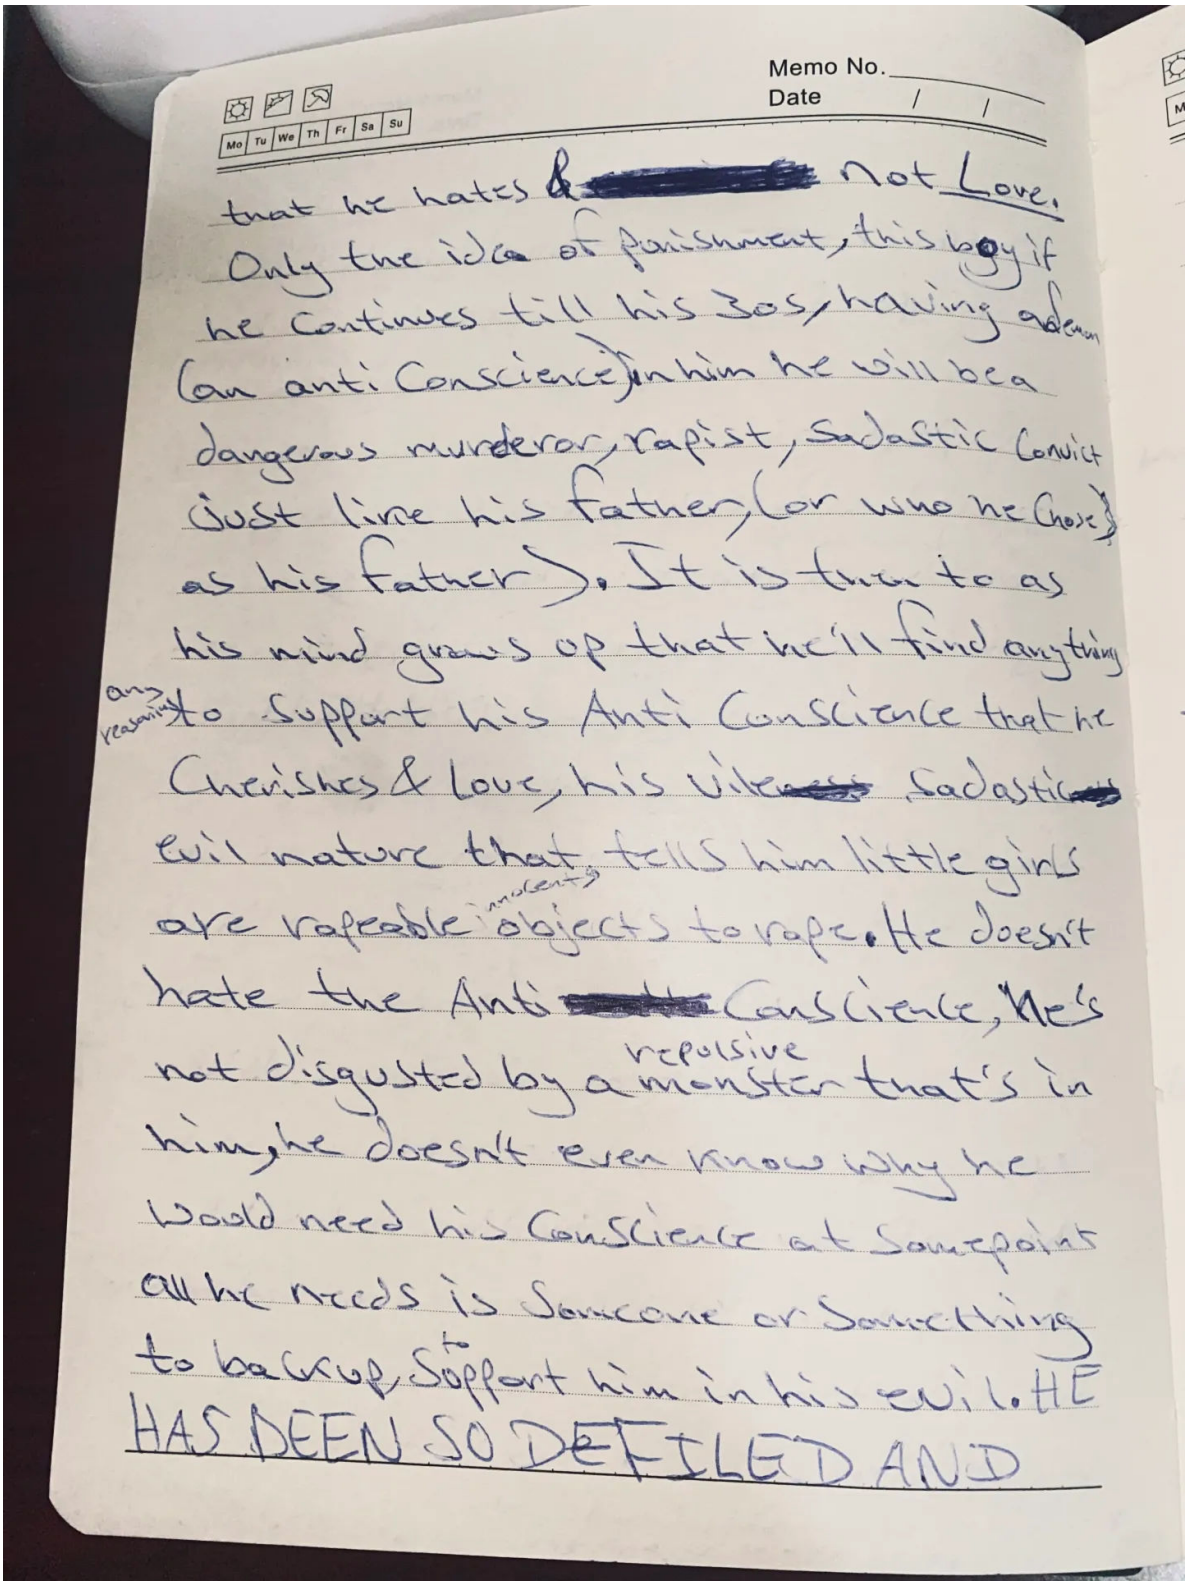
They’re not just displaying emotions, they’re doing evil.



Emotions don’t negate cruel realities, cruel realities are cruel they have substance, but manifestations are mostly fake that steer you into evil, it’s a causation of cruelty. When you are sad, it doesn’t mean you’re not broken by what you're experiencing sadly, but emotion is a hand of a demon that shapes that into something deadly, remember they will use anything for evil. So be careful when the devil brings his hand in whatever it is you're doing or going through. God is with us, never waver!

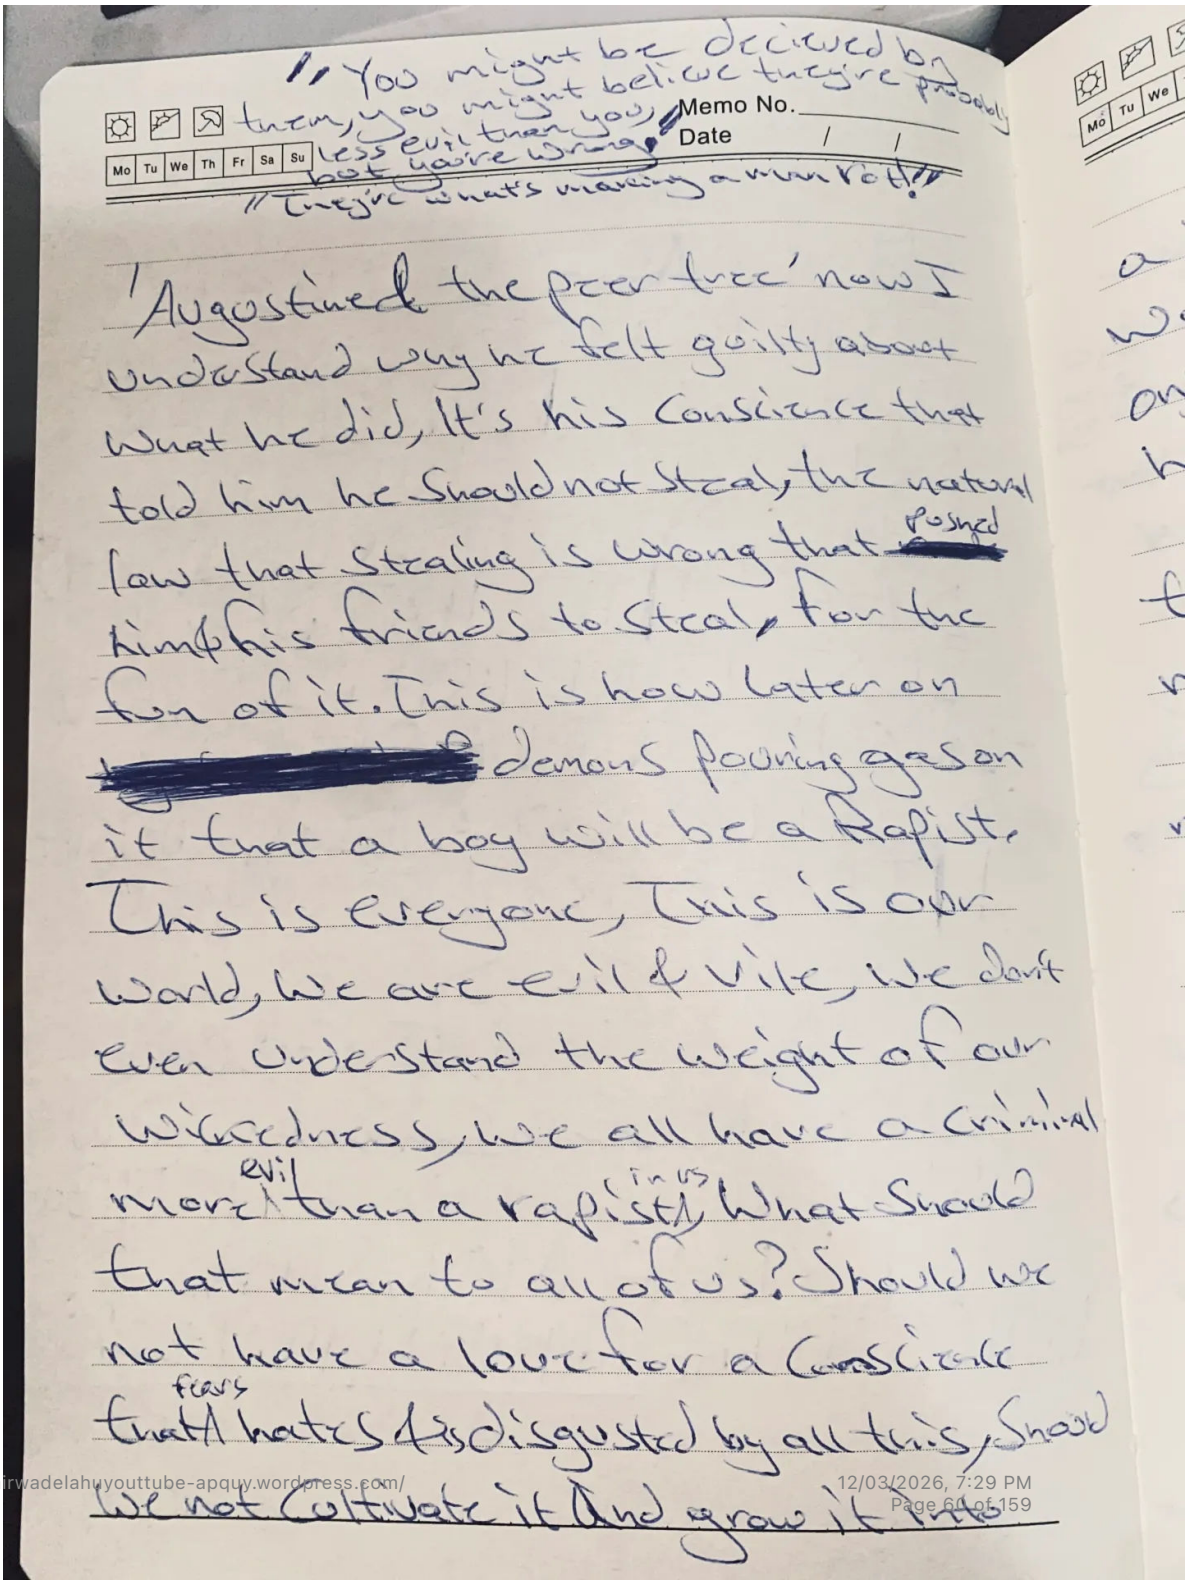
You want to see what they are you'll see there true face when they tighten things up trying to blind you, or hide things from you, that right there is who they're, it will tell you a lot about who they are.



All our interactions are evil and filthy.

Everything the devil is in, is like a spoiled milk that you don't drink. Every interactions that come out of these garments are vile and loathsome, it's evil and disgusting.

There's no truth that can come out of them but evil, they're not a source of

This is how you should hate your own skin! How vile they are in the eyes of a Holy God!!! HIS Wrath burns every day!

- This boy is born with Conscience that sees Sacredness his mother & his father are everything to him, if you tell him to kill them or rape them, he would ask your mental state, being so appalled and disgusted by such vileness.

You see, even starting out there's a moral ethics written in us meaning we are not some persona (Jungian) or a void that you download things into, no that baby existed with pain he calls it bad even before he came out of his mother's Womb, inflicting pain means bad no one has taught him to feel guilty about it, and second hand does n't need to stretch that far into calling pain bad, the way of seeing people as sacred beings is originally in him, they are very special & dear to that baby, they are wonderfully made & no other thing is going to change that, the idea of it is sickening and painful, killing someone is very bad, it's evil, to go there you have to go through a lot of monstrosity, degradation & ugliness. He knows there's a hierarchy about everything created & he respects & loves that beauty and that goodness. Now some ugliness going against beauty against all kinds of goodness comes & destroys sacredness, telling him people are repeatable, that they deserve suffering that evil is good maybe for once or now

"Peterson thinks weakness makes you vengeful & bitter". Not knowing it's demons that are making him vengeful & bitter not man. but a demon's work and manifestation, We should make it a task to be very careful about these demonic manifestations and wish to be free from them. When you're given an identity know everyone of it is evil, it's there for the monster's agenda and not for your sake.

Your 'emotions' and every motivation that comes with it isn't you.

In the case of Nietzsche for example, (a good example) he wasn't having a 'master's (as he calls it) identity' when

"What we call love, when we say I'm feeling like I'm in love, it's probably a sinister emotion, a subverting emotion, I can assure you. I can assure you. We shouldn't feel that way towards others, it's too evil surely, surely!"

he thought morality means slavishness, or that compassion is weakness, When he thought people are means to an end, he was following the footstep of the devil, his philosophy was the understanding of the evil track that the monster was laying out before him. What he was preached at he shaped it, twisted it, to his own tune, preached it and lived it. All this thinking and philosophy came from his anti-conscience, from demons for demonic agenda, and he was being led by it. He was being led by false personas like monstrosity, Sadism, beastiality, pride, hate,

"They will show you many perverted systems that exist."

"Don't try to make sense out of it you already know demons orchestrate things, when you're tempted to see a system, sequence, some order realize that you + the person around you is possessed by evil, you don't have to understand how far they're from heaven just know they are evil & that everything they do is evil."

Why do I believe that it's demons who created emotions? Because God wouldn't create Sadism, & other emotions related these kinds of motivations. He would not dance between Sadism & Sadness, My God is Holy, such things don't come from him. God doesn't tempt you, does he with Sadism?, the very thing he died for? "God cannot be tempted. He will never tempt anyone" - James 1:13. God doesn't play dice with these things.

He might create or express divine motivations & emotions but not Sadistic & mischievous emotions or tendencies that "I believe in Heaven when we are Holy & angelic, we will have emotions & motivations that God created fully, we will be clothed by it throwing out the old evil garment. What will it be like to be identified with Holy & sinless motivations!?" are sources of evil.

If someone created these evil emotions, it means that those who created it are evil, (Supernatural monsters who can see in 4th or 8th dimension, (who have these kinds of eyes, who can move a car like it's a toy), About things they are human matrix runners), emotions that don't look like bad emotions or motivations (laughter, weeping) are also smeared with ~~[redacted]~~ bloodied hands, like those emotions packing infinite evil monstrosity, the criminal's finger & foot prints are all around them, monsters created them. Are these creatures good or bad?

I've experienced this, these were sexualized, it's like they do with me!

when they Shapeshift from making you want to tear apart Someone to laughter, what do you infer? Anything good? No! Whatever their hand is involved with it's bad news, it's trouble!

Which one is not evil?

Imagine our interactions, one is laughing the other being tempted to tear you apart I would have been tempted to say Christ's nature was best described by Eutychian Monophysitism doctrine but Christ did express his emotion by weeping for example, while being in a humanly evil body, meaning he did have the same thing I am being tempted with in him, every evil motivations that Hitler had, but never once acting upon it

one is wanting to party another is

Eh we are sick! All our interactions are potential evil!

the temptation in the wilderness is an evidence for his temptations, those are everyones temptation among many, but he succeeded. He who knew no sin became sin on our behalf,... When he was on that Cross taking our sins, and punishments, how much more darkness, humaness and evil did he carry in himself?!

How can Christ free from sin be in a body of sin and experience every kind of evil in him? He had to struggle like everyone with sin yet without sin he lived a sinless victorious life. Not only did he took upon our Sin & punished himself for it he lived a Clean Sinless life for us, and reserved the legal right to Cloth us with it.

† It was a Holy Sacrifice

May he have mercy on us Sinners daily Amen†

Did Jesus Sinned because he wept about Lazarus, God did not Sin when he did this thing or he would have been Sinning, I'm not quite Sure how to Understand this but he did tell us one parable, "Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in Sheeps Clothing but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.

By their fruit you will recognize them. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. Every tree that doesn't bear good fruit is cut down & thrown into the fire. Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them."
Weeping if it comes from a bad fruit it should be something sinful, or a tool that's there to bring some form of evil. I don't think he was crying out of ignorance about the truth of 'emotions' and the fruits of the flesh.

Was he crying because he wanted to though? Like for example being tempted with the emotion & motivation of lust, not because you want to but without your choice, or like orchestrate our body movements into sexualizing things, he was going through the same issue of another entity's will interfering. That's another matter, if it wasn't him but the thing in him orchestrating it, it was an outward expression of what is in him that was seen. Weeping was one emotion visible among those we didn't see like lust, sadism & all sorts of evil. We know he was tempted by the devil that tells you a lot about some of the motivations that he has to go through. There might be many ways how Christ wasn't sinning when he was crying, or when emotions & motivations were displayed, the Lord knows how.

"For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in every way as we are, yet without sin."

Day 37

Peterson thinks there are positive emotions that come from goals & negative emotions that come from aimlessness. Like Abeer said "I felt anger because my grand-mother is/annoying and a very talkative old lady", not knowing his emotion was not there for any reason, but because someone threw it in him. He felt anger because someone is annoying etc, there's no reason for any emotion, it's literally there because another entity placed it there. The right question is why would he plate that thing in me, infront of my own mother?

Peterson thinks because he's setting goals

// People not knowing why they're exhibiting some behaviors they say things like // Those is why I'm laughing? ... explanation & reasons ... it's a monster for his own enemy agenda doing these things // that's the true reason.

doing Something good he's feeling a positive emotion, Wrong premise/logic he feels emotions, whatever it is because Someone Who created it is making him feel it. That's the right logic behind emotions. Peterson thinks because he's not setting goals & because he's aimless he feels negative emotions like anxiety for example, Wrong premise & Wrong logic, he feels, again, what he feels because Someone who created it is making him feel it, & not for any reason.

Another thing he's wrong about is that there is no positive 'emotion' because 'emotions' are 'tools', they would have been good if Someone good was using them, if Someone good created them, but no, it's a very cruel creature that are using them, how do I know ~~it~~ It's cruel? Because ~~it~~ makes me feel sadistic emotions towards my own mother, or because ~~it~~ plants the seed of enemity with everyone around me, because ~~it~~ insult my father that I deeply respect, because ~~it~~ tortures me, etc...

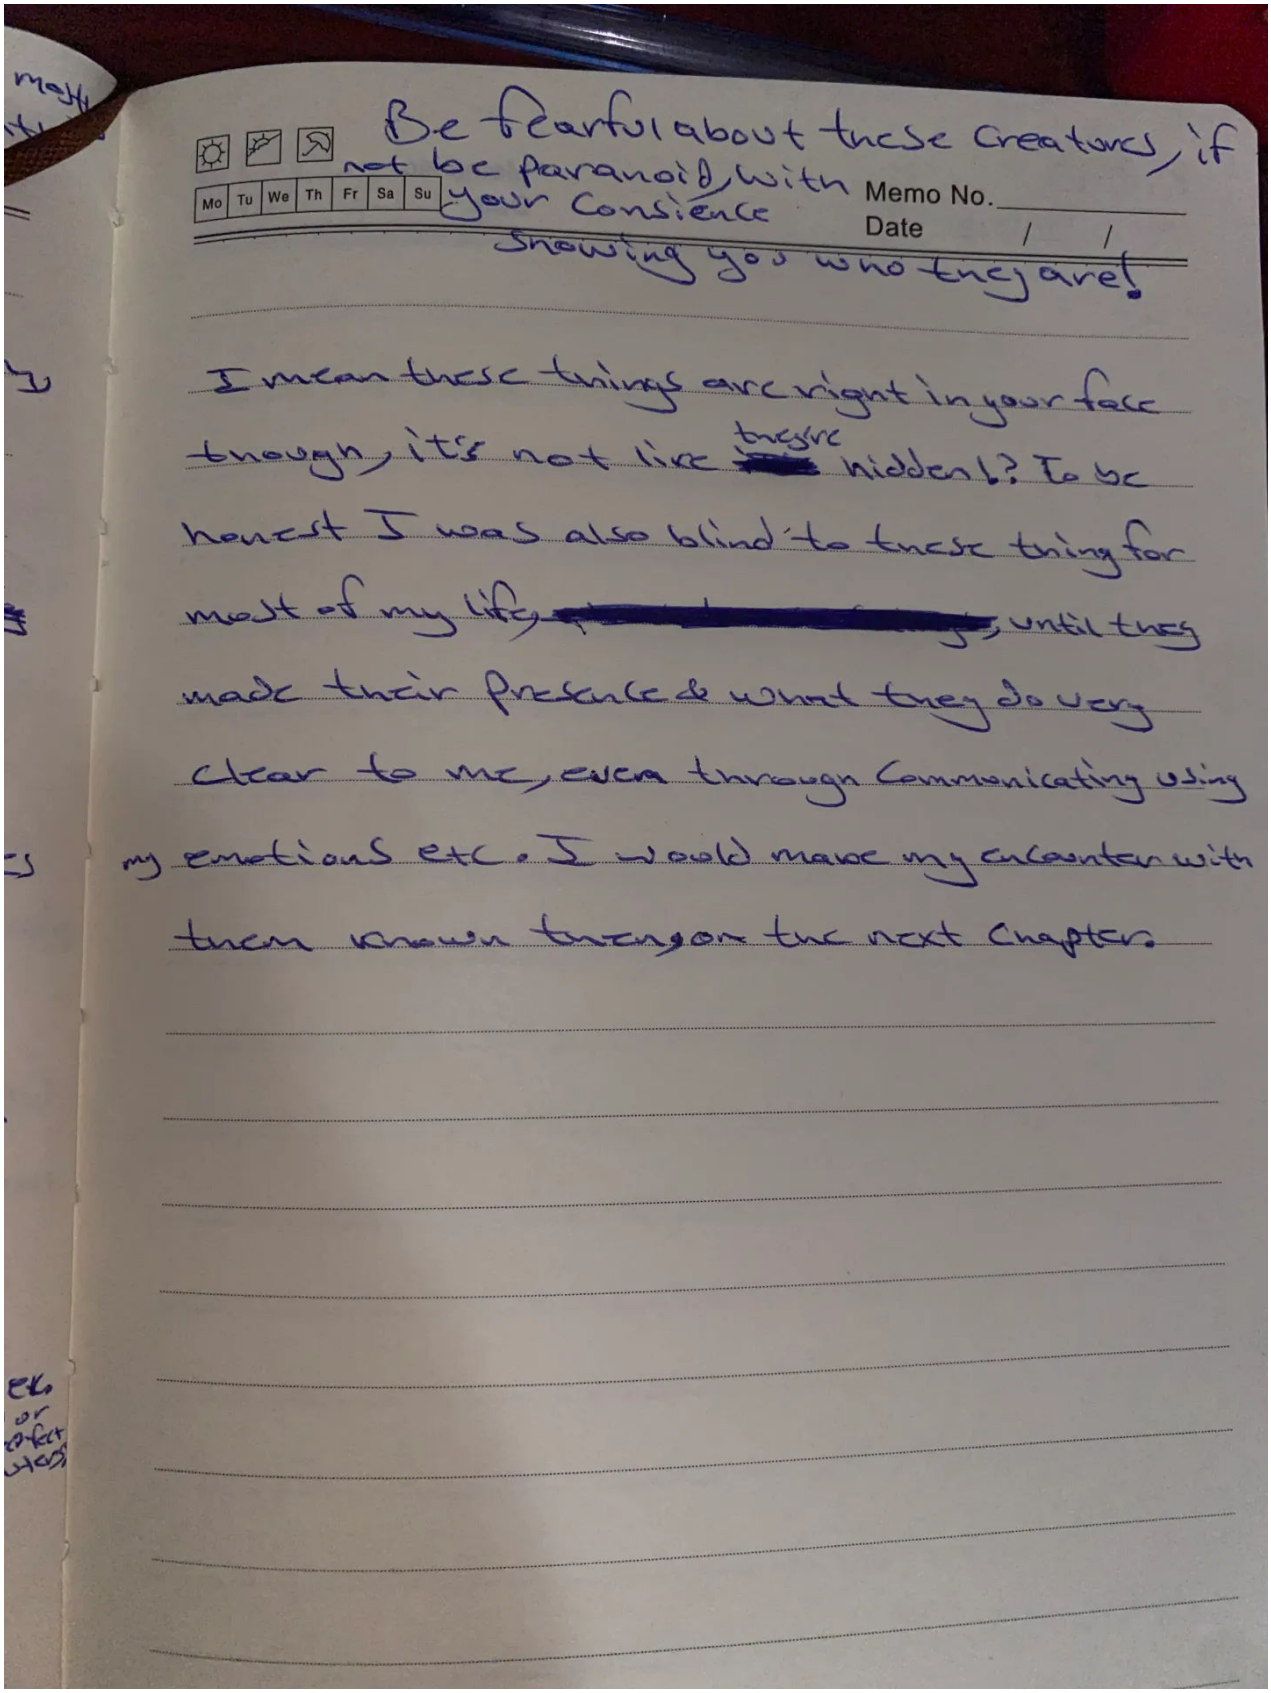
I can see how ~~it~~ this creature is using my emotions against everyone, & it's very clear to me ~~that~~ that it is an evil whose only purpose is to do evil, I would not expect anything good out of ~~it~~ this entity but evil, not any emotion, or circumstances can be good or even mildly impressive the entire moment

Does not anyone know about these creatures if they do, maybe someone who's a pshychologist professor would have cracked ~~the~~ the truth about emotion, by now! But I think not



Is there someone supernatural in my my body? Why is my gut growling? Is there someone supernatural in my world? Am I in the unseen realm of a Demon?

About

This archive is a personal diary-book — a testimony of struggle, reflection, and faith. It is not a medical manual, but a spiritual and philosophical exploration of the human condition.
Here, the gut is more than digestion: it is a battlefield where emotions, conflicts, and unseen forces reveal themselves. The pages describe how destructive influences can manipulate bodily sensations and relationships, and how Christ's kingdom of light stands in opposition, offering hope, unity, and love.
Readers are invited to see their own experiences not only through biology, but also through Christ and spirit — to recognize that our life is tied to both body and soul.
